Barghoorn Cites Papers For Arrest

Thrust Into Hands By Stranger; Not Mistreated, He Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Photographs bundled inside a roll of newspapers and thrust into his hands by a stranger in front of a Moscow hotel apparently were Yale Prof. Frederick C. Barghoorn's passport to arrest seconds later by Soviet police.

In the 16 days that he was imprisoned on spy charges, he told newsmen Tuesday, he was not mistreated and signed no confessions.

He said his experience has not shattered his belief that cultural exchange programs between the United States and Russia are a good thing. But the State Department still has not given a go ahead for scheduled exchange talks which the United States canceled because of the Barghoorn incident.

Professor, 52, who was released Saturday and returned home Sunday, met with State Department officials for six hours Tuesday to talk about his Moscow experience. Then he met with newsmen, telling this story:

On Oct. 31, the eve of his planned departure from Moscow, he returned to the Metropole Hotel in the Soviet capital around 7:25 p.m. Suddenly he was approached by a "youngish-looking man, carrying what looked like a roll of newspapers."

The man asked something which Barghoorn believes was: "Are you an American?"

"I was startled, said yes, and he pushed toward me the roll of newspapers. I took it. I thought, perhaps foolishly, that it was propaganda material and put it into my coat. Almost simultaneously I was grabbed and hustled off in an automobile."

He said there were photographs in the roll, adding "I would not understand military matters."

Red Dog Gets Bandit's $256 In Fast Game

A young Dormont man who obtained $256 in a holdup of the Pick - Roosevelt Hotel Monday night in Pittsburgh told police today he lost the loot in less than 10 minutes while gambling at the plush Red Dog Club on Route 30 in Hancock County.

Pittsburgh detectives said Richard Rector Jr., 24, admitted under questioning that he lost the holdup money at the nightclub near Chester, but were unable to ascertain the nature of the gambling game.

"It might have been blackjack or another card game," police said. They added that Rector is "not a sharpie" and indicated he is unfamiliar with gambling.

When asked initially where he lost the money, Rector told detectives that he could remember it was only "near Waterford Park Race Track." But police persisted as to the specific location, and Rector said the loot was lost on the gambling tables of the Red Dog Club.

Rector quietly turned himself into detectives Tuesday morning, and was slated for a hearing today on armed robberty charges. He said he had been drinking before he pulled the holdup, and had borrowed a shotgun, gone to his room, and sawed off the barrel.

After sticking up the hotel, Rector said, he called up a friend, who drove him to West Virginia where he lost the money.

The Red Dog, reputedly outfitted for all types of gambling, has been doing a thriving weekend business. Patrons report first - class service in all respects while they roll dice and play cards. There are employes that park cars in a rear lot, or drive them to a nearby area when the spaces are filled.

Hurt Youth 'Critical'

TORONTO — Thomas G. Tarr, 15, remains in "critical" condition today in Ohio Valley Hospital in Steubenville with injuries received in an auto crash Saturday on Route 7. His 17-year-old sister, Linda L. Tarr, was fatally injured when their car struck a parked truck.

First Woman In Council

Mrs. Betty Berg Named To Late Husband's Post

Mrs. Betty Russell Berg Tuesday night became the first woman Council member in East Liverpool's 129-year history as a municipal corporation when she was elected to serve the six weeks remaining in the term of her late husband, Kenneth C. Berg, as Second Ward representative.

At the same time, Council elected Norman R. Bucher, 818 Bradshaw Ave., to serve until Dec. 31 as a councilman - at-large, filling the vacancy created Nov. 13 when Councilman George E. Willshaw was elevated to Council president to succeed Charles N. Edwards, resigned.

BOTH MRS. Berg, a Republican, and Bucher, a Democrat, were elected unanimously. They already had obtained bonds — one of the steps before qualifying — and assumed their posts immediately after receiving the oath of office from Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

Bucher's election already had been assured, but Council's action in naming Mrs. Berg came as a surprise.

MRS. BETTY BERG
Her Election Is Surprise.

Her husband, who was named to his second term at the Nov. 5 general election, died last Thursday night after surgery at the Oakland Veterans Administration Hospital in Pittsburgh.

Both Mayor Bert H. Goodballet and Willshaw commented that Council had set a precedent by electing the first woman Council member in East Liverpool's history.

THE COMPLICATED election procedure was part of a general reshuffling of Council that was forced by Edwards' resig-

Bond Firm Retained For Sewage Plant

Council At Chester Approves Contract With Ohio Concern

A contract with the Magnus & Co., Cincinnati bonding firm, to handle financing of Chester's proposed sewage disposal plant was formally approved by Council at a meeting Tuesday night.

The contract, over which Council and the firm had been at odds for a number of months, is about the same as the original agreement with the company in 1952.

Magnus agrees to purchase the mortgage revenue bonds for the project at an interest rate of 3½ per cent — paying $900 for each $1,000 bond plus accrued interest.

Councilman Donald Chaney, chairman of the finance committee, said the contract calls for a maturity date in 35 years, and makes the bonds callable after 10 years.

Chaney at earlier meetings this year said other bonding firms should be asked to submit bids on the financing, and some were contacted.

He said Magnus' one offer would have cost the city over $100,000 more, and that one firm underbid Magnus on other phases of the contract.

However, he said he and Councilman Wayne Hutton had recently met with a Pittsburgh bonding attorney who advised them Magnus' original 1952 contract was a good offer if the maturity date could be established.

The action clears the way for further planning and efforts to obtain federal aid on the project for which A. R. Todd Associates of Wheeling are the engineers.

Hutton reported Harry Gidley of the Gidley, Kelly & Stobbs Consulting Engineers of Charleston will file a report on a recent water system survey at a

$27,799 Fund Allocated For City Expenses

Council gave approval Tuesday night to an amended appropriation ordinance allocating $27,799 out of income tax revenues for the operating expenses of various city departments.

The allocations are designed primarily to provide funds that will permit the departments to round out the year. Current appropriations run out Dec. 31.

The biggest single appropriation is $9,900 to help meet payrolls of street department employes.

The ordinance also provides $9,927 in the safety department —including the fire and police departments and the parking meter division.

In the police department, it allocates: $4,041, regular police; $500 each to police overtime pay and maintenance of equipment; $1,000, gas and oil; $371, incidentals, and $300, radio system rental.

In the fire department, the appropriations are: $300, fuel and light; $132, fire hydrant; $85, laundry; $225, incidentals; $2,150, motor maintenance, and $230, radio rental.

In the parking meter operation, the ordinance allows $93 toward the pay of Robert Kelly, meter repairman. It provides $1,602 to help pay the city's street lighting bill and $260 for an assistant engineer's pay. The latter two are part of the service fund.

Allocated for expenses in the General Fund are: $287, legal advertising; $150, Municipal Court incidentals; $50, acting judge; $46, clerk's stationery, and $27, Public Employes Retirement System contribution.

Set up for miscellaneous purposes are: Income tax office salaries, $129; tax refunds, $100; Thompson Park baseball field fence, $25; secondary street contracts, $800, and swimming pool fund, $1,615.

Council furniture and fixtures, $109; sewer revenue fund, $1,000; water department fund, $1,600, and garbage fund, $180.

The ordinance also allocates $98 to the Health Board for routine expenses.

State's Case Ends In Trial For Murder

Confession Read In Stabbing Death Of Weirton Resident

NEW CUMBERLAND—Prosecutor Floyd R. Tarr rested the state's case Tuesday afternoon in the murder trial of Leonard Brown, 31, after calling seven witnesses and presenting the defendant's signed confession as evidence.

The Weirton man is charged with first degree murder in the knife - killing of 36-year-old Floyd Cochrane of Weirton May 5.

The prosecutor said earlier he would seek a conviction for first degree murder but not the death penalty.

The jury of 11 men and one woman was to hear testimony today from defense witnesses summoned by Atty. George Bohach and Atty. Leonard Tost representing the defendant.

Weirton Detective George Kource read Brown's three - page confession yesterday in the trial's second day in Hancock County Circuit Court, with Judge James G. McClure presiding.

The detective said he obtained the statement from Brown while the defendant was recuperating in Weirton General Hospital from knife wounds received in a fight with Cochrane.

According to the testimony, Brown said he had been with Cochrane several times the day of May 5 and they had gone to a tavern in Weirton together in the evening. Brown said he had picked up a hunting knife and a guitar earlier in the day and

Westinghouse Union To Decide Agreement

Union and company negotiators tentatively agreed to a contract settlement at mid - morning in the dispute which has idled 1,300 members of Local 201, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, at the Beaver plant of the Westinghouse Corp. since Nov. 11.

The proposal is to be presented to a vote of union members at a meeting at the Beaver Area Senior High School, across from the Westinghouse plant at 8 p.m., Thursday.

The negotiators began talks yesterday afternoon and they lasted until early today, then resumed at mid - morning at the Willows Motel in Industry.

Ronald Bolton, president of Steelworkers Local 1269, said today "some progress" was made in the negotiations at Pittsburgh Tuesday in the contract dispute between Mackintosh - Hemphill plants in Midland and Pittsburgh and two Steelworkers Locals, and that another session will be held later in the week. They have been on trike since Oct. 11.

Council Airs Suggestion

Chester City Hall's Use As Post Office Is Proposed

Use of the first floor of the Chester City Hall for a post office and transfer of the municipal offices to the former Washington School building were proposed at a meeting of Council Tuesday night.

Councilmen Donald Chaney and Charles Kology are to confer with postal authorities about the possibility of utilizing the City Hall.

A STUDY for relocating the present Post Office at 5th St. has been under way for some time by postal officials.

The proposal emerged from a discussion of the heating problem at the City Hall — Council has been concerned about the cost of fuel and has aired the possibility of obtaining a new heating system.

Chaney said the school building — recently closed by the Board of Education with the transfer of pupils to the new primary school — has four large rooms and a basement. He said there are two rooms on the first floor and two on the second, adding the structure — built in 1907 — is in "good condition."

He pointed out the postal department has been interested in a new location for the Chester

2 Soviet Diplomats Beaten And Jailed By Police In Congo

Pair Claims Diplomatic Immunity

Soviet Embassy's Officials Have No Word Of Their Fate

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Congolese security agents and gendarmes dragged two Soviet diplomats feet first from their car Tuesday, beat them with clubs and hauled them off to jail.

They were still held today.

Soviet embassy officials said the diplomats were embassy counsellor Boris Noronin and press attache Yuri Miakotnykh. The officials said they had no word on their fate.

Eyewitnesses said Noronin and Miakotnykh refused to allow the Congolese to search their car on their return from Brazzaville, across the Congo River. The diplomats claimed diplomatic immunity.

Soviet embassy officials said the Congolese also had cut the telephone and electric supply to the luxury apartment where the 100-man Soviet mission lives and works.

Sources close to the Congolese government hinted that "highly compromising" documents had been seized from the two arrested diplomats.

Gendarmes stood guard outside the embassy building Tuesday night, refusing to allow callers to enter.

Relations between the Congolese government and the Communist block have been bad, and some members of Premier Cyrille Adoula's regime recently were agitating for a break with the Soviet Union, Poland, Czechoslovakia and Bulgaria, the Communist nations with which the Congo has diplomatic relations.

An eyewitness to the arrest of the two Russians said when they refused to allow a search of their car at the Brazzaville ferry landing, the Congolese let all the air out of the car's tires.

Cambodia's Severing Plan For U.S. Aid

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — The Cambodian Foreign Ministry summoned U. S. Ambassador Philip D. Sprouse today, presumably to deliver orders from ruling Prince Norodom Sihanouk for an immediate end to the 30 million-a-year program of U.S. military and economic aid to his country.

Sihanouk announced his decision to a wildly cheering rally of his political party Tuesday. He charged U.S. aid was being used to undermine his regime and that rebel Cambodians based in South Viet Nam were using American equipment.

The prince said he did not want to sever diplomatic relations with the United States but that "all U.S. missions other than a skeleton diplomatic staff must go."

The State Department earlier Tuesday instructed Sprouse to inform the Cambodian government that the prince's charges were false.

Battle Of Tarawa

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Gen. Shoup Still Relives Bloody Conflict With Japs

WASHINGTON (AP) — After 20 years, Marine Gen. David M. Shoup still relives the blood - drenched Battle of Tarawa — all but a few vital seconds that remain a blank in his mind.

Those were the seconds it took Shoup to dash about 40 yards across bullet - and - mortar - swept coral sand to the shelter of a blockhouse wall.

From there, the man who was to become commandmant of the Marine Corps directed the savage assualt on the tiny Central Pacific island which Japan had converted into a fortress.

That three - day battle, which began at dawn just 20 years ago today, was the most costly brief engagement in Marine history.

When it was over, 990 Marines were dead — many were down before they could wade ashore from disabled or stranded landing craft. Another 2,311 Leathernecks were wounded.

Only 18 of the 4,800 - man Japanese garrison lived to be captured. The rest were slain in their bunkers, or killed themselves rather than surrender.

Shoup, 58, has good reason to remember Tarawa — he won the Medal of Honor there.

The citation said this:

"Although severely shocked by an exploding enemy shell soon after landing . . . and suffering from a serious, painful leg wound which had become infected, Col. Shoup fearlessly exposed himself to the terrific and relentless artillery, machinegun and rifle fire. . .

"Rallying his hesitant troops . . . he gallantly led them across the fringing reefs to charge the heavily fortified island and reinforce our hard - pressed, thinly held lines. . ."

Graying but still rugged-looking, Shoup reminisced about the battle as he sat in his big, memento - cluttered office at Marine headquarters.

"It's as clear as though it was yesterday," Shoup told an interviewer in accents that reflected his Indiana birth.

"But there's one period of several seconds that's been a blank all these years.

"I remember looking over a cocoanut log barrier and picking the route I would take. I remember reaching the blockhouse with my radio man. But I've never been able to reconstruct what happened in between."

Shoup had crouched behind the log barrier after wading several hundred yards through shallow water churned by bullets and exploding shells.

Like many of his men, Shoup started walking toward shore when his amphibious tractor was knocked out. His amtrack's driver was picked off.

The colonel clasped his hands with a Marine corporal and began pushing his way along the shallow reef.

"I felt his grip tighten, and I looked around at him," Shoup said.

"A sniper had put a bullet between his eyes."

Shoup was silent a moment, then went on:

"I wouldn't be here today if I hadn't turned to look at him."

For just then, another bullet fired by a Japanese sniper struck the water, spent its force and slammed into Shoup's neck.

7 Times Brighter

New 'White Way' To Be Turned On

Street light illumination in downtown East Liverpool will be seven times brighter after a switch is thrown Thursday night at 7 to put into service a new system of four-tube fluorescent fixtures.

Marking the culmination of three years effort by the East Liverpool Merchants Association, Mayor Bert H. Goodballet will close the switch in a brief ceremony at E. 5th St. and Cherry Alley.

THE CEREMONY will include a brief "before-and-after" demonstration to show the brilliance of the new lights, compared with the present fixtures.

The present lights will come on at sundown, activated as usual by an electric eye that notes approaching darkness.

As the ceremony begins tomorrow night, Mayor Goodballet will throw a switch shutting off the old lights. There will be a moment of darkness, then another switch will be thrown to turn on the new lights.

After the fluorescent fixtures have been in service again, they will be switched off and there will be another moment of darkness. Then they will be switched on again for continual service.

ELMA POINTED out the alternate use of the two systems will demonstrate effectively to spectators the comparative brilliance of the new lights as compared with the old fixtures.

Ohio Power Co. crews have installed 58 of the new fixtures. They will go into service on: 4th St. between Cherry Alley

Rotary Hears J. T. Hall

City Man Sees East Berlin Business, Cultural Desert

The Communist guide called it "paradise" but East Berlin was an economic and cultural desert to a city businessman and his wife who stopped there on an European trip earlier this month.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Hall of Elysian Way saw first-hand the impact of the Communist-built "wall" snaking through the middle of the city while in Berlin Oct. 31-Nov. 5.

THEY FOUND the German city a study in contrast — West Berlin a thriving metropolis of 2.2 million residents under self-government, and East or Communist Berlin in a state of deterioration, Hall told the Rotary Club Tuesday.

The West Germans, under Mayor Willie Brandt, have reconstructed their part of the city in modern fashion, listing new buildings and churches, wide streets and up-to-date department stores. This half of the city is delegated to three powers — France in the north, Britain in the center, and the U. S. in the south.

But on the East side of the concrete, stone and barbed wire wall, reconstruction of buildings destroyed by Allied bombs is slow, the residents seldom smile or congregate freely, and live in an economic and cultural desert, Hall told the club at its meeting in the Travelers Hotel.

President of Hall China Co., Hall said he feels the defection of East Berliners into modern West Berlin was one of the reasons why the infamous wall was erected by the Communists.

Action Starts For 400 New Curb Meters

Councilmen Clear Committee Report; Legislation Asked

Acting at the recommendation of its planning committee, Council voted Tuesday night to consider legislation authorizing the administration to replace about 400 1947 model parking meters.

Climax of a long investigation, Councilman Floyd Murray, chairman of the committee, submitted a brief report requesting the ordinance committee to present legislation to clear the way for a call for bids on the meters.

The 16-year-old meters have been the subject of repeated investigations prompted by motorists' complaints that they frequently will not function or work improperly.

They are the remainder of the 475 meters that comprised East Liverpool's original installation in September 1947. A few of the old meters have been replace piecemeal over the years. Because of extension of the metered zones, East Liverpool now has about 600 in all.

Councilman Edward Massey moved to accept Murray's report, seconded by Councilman S. James Welch. The motion passed unanimously. No date was set for presentation of the legislation, but it may be at the next regular meeting Dec. 2.

Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper pointed out to Council that

Do They Play It This Way?

Unless the Kremlin gives permission to some American psychiatrist to head-shrink its leading lights, no one ever will know what goes through their minds.

But whether they plan to be frustrating, or it turns out that way, the job couldn't be done better. Take the incident of the Yale professor, Frederick C. Barghoorn.

There was no reason for the Kremlin to pick him up on suspicion of being a spy. If there had been a good reason to pick him up, there would have been no reason to turn him loose. The whole thing was whimsical.

But the effect on the American mind — both the mass mind and the official mind — is exactly what the world's most accomplished mental conditioners want it to be.

THEIR notorious brain - washing technique calls for keeping the victim in a state of uncertainty. He must never know whether he is going to be rewarded or punished.

This makes him work harder than ever to meet with the approval of his tormentors. He knocks himself out to do things that will please them, because he knows from past experience they are not easy to please.

Soon, unless he is careful, he is preoccupied with what has become a project of making himself agreeable. He must please his tormentors at any cost.

No matter what happens, he must not displease them, because that assuredly will be unpleasant, whereas the results of pleasing them often can be pleasant for a short time.

This has been viewed and reviewed endlessly, yet it always seems to be forgotten the next time the Kremlin pulls the same trick.

The United States government has become so sensitive to Russian rebuffs it will crawl on its stomach to avert them, perhaps the only instance in history of psychologically conditioning an entire government.

THE UPSHOT of it is that the Soviet Union now is treated better on the whole by the United States than its true international friends, who never comprehended the profound psychological wisdom of the adage: The squeaking wheel gets the grease.

Russia is America's squeaking wheel.

Our Ideas Of Exchange Of Culture Differ

Why Not Be A Real Santa?

There are many signs that the Christmas season is at hand—the placing of the holiday lights in the business district, the erection of the big tree in the Diamond, gaily-decorated store windows, preparations for the annual parade, and so on.

And, like it or not, you can be sure the weather will get into the act, too.

For most, it will mean busy days of shopping, of gift wrapping and of the many other things which make the season one of the most joyous of the year.

For others, however, it will be anything but joyful. Instead, it will be a time of depressed spirits, of regret and even sorrow.

Fund appeals will be made for one cause or the other. Give as much as you can in the true spirit of the season. But, most of all, why not pick out one truly deserving family and appoint yourself a personal Santa to it.

Whether you remain an anonymous St. Nick is up to you. But by all means see that the holiday is made brighter for some family which can see nothing but a bleak and gloomy Christmas ahead.

A basket of groceries, a crisp bill in a gay envelope, warm clothing . . . all can spell out Merry Christmas in big letters for the less fortunate.

Safety's In Order

Tuesday's Review carried stories of quite a few traffic violations — some of a serious nature, some routine, but, nevertheless, all violations.

The violations, on the heels of last week's fatal mishap at Lisbon, underscore the need for more careful driving and for a stricter adherence to traffic regulations.

In the months ahead, driving will become even more demanding as winter adds to the woes of district motorists.

For your sake and for the sake of others, make safety your primary objective when behind the wheel.

Strong Man From Milledgeville

When Rep. Carl Vinson retires from the U.S. House of Representatives at the end of his current term, one of this republic's prize demonstrations will have been ended.

Rep. Vinson was elected to Congress in 1914 and re-elected to every Congress afterward. For half a century he kept piling up seniority until there were no more congressional worlds to conquer.

His great personal interest was in military affairs. As perennial chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, which bore different names in previous times, he was the most powerful arbiter in militarism in Washington. Over the long pull, he exercised more authority over military affairs than any of the commanders-in-chief he saw come and go.

And on what meat did this caesar feed that he grew so strong? What made it possible for a small-town lawyer and a one-time Georgia legislator to sit in judgment on the military policy of the United States?

Representative democracy. The credo that a nation is governed best by the ordinary run of its own citizens who are interested in public service. The belief that men and women so chosen will retain enough good judgment to reflect the composite sense of the people; that they will be responsive to public opinion because they, themselves, are the essence of public opinion.

The theory never was tested more significantly than in the case of Carl Vinson, a small-town lawyer who became a congressional czar over the military affairs of the United States.

In the opinion of his legislative colleages and a long succession of other small - town Democrats who came and went in public administration, he came as close to fulfilling the promise of representative democracy as anyone who ever left hometown obscurity for a public career in Washington.

Matter Of Price

By Truman Twill

Everybody knows the United States is advising the South Vietnamese how to fight the North Vietnamese et al.

This is being done on the proper assumption that if the United States is putting up the money for the war effort it should have the right to direct the action.

The South Vietnamese also have an assumption — that if they let the United States direct the action its prestige will be at stake and it will want to win at any cost. This could save the bacon.

But in all truth we wish the little fighters in South Vietnam had called in some other advisers to tell them how to fight a war. To go further than that, we wish our own great, good government had said:

"Look, little brown brothers, we appreciate the flattery implied in your request for military direction. But in all candor little beebees, we must advise you not to pole-vault with a weak reed.

"The only war in which we ever distinguished ourselves was the one against the British at the beginning, and viewed by hindsight we weren't so good in that one. But the British dumbheads were so bad we won in spite of wholesale desertions, betrayal from within and lack of funds.

"The less said about the War of 1812 and the French and Indian wars, the better. Then we really creamed one up—the Spanish-American War, which to this day is the all-time model in how not to fight a war. Here again the thing that saved our necks was the advanced decay of the Spanish empire.

"World War I marked the beginning of a new era in our military technique, but the truth is, little brothers, the technique is not adapted to countries that don't have it to throw away. In World War I, we learned if you can't lick 'em, you can smother 'em.

"We used this technique doubled and redoubled in World War II, to the degree that when we look back we can say that one more victory like that one would be a defeat.

"And goodness knows, brothers, we wouldn't want you to think we are proud of what happened in Korea, where we goofed it up so good we had to call off the fight after cashiering out best fighter for trying too hard.

"No, little beebees, the best bet for our money is to hire someone with more expertise than Americans have demonstrated in the fighting business. We'd suggest Germans, except they keep getting the kraut knocked out of them. Or we might suggest Russians, except that would be awkward when they met Russians working for the other side.

"Red Chinese are out of the question, of course, because they're backing the other side and Nationalist Chinese, well, the last time we backed them they let us down. But you might try the Swiss, whose efficiency is legendary and haven't faced a moment of truth in recent years. Or you might give the Finns a ring. Or the Greeks. Both have stood off determined attacks. The Turks are not to be dismissed lightly. But don't get any ideas about the United States. You can't afford us, little brown brothers. We're not sure we can afford ourselves."

Labor Has Some Startling Proposals

By Victor Riesel

Fanfare and the international spotlight at the big national AFL-CIO convention went off stage with John Kennedy but to insiders the real story is still in the making at this mass gathering of the nation's 1,200 most influential union chiefs.

Victor Riesel

They are hammering out a dramatic action program which includes a plan for virtual retirement at 50 years of age for some workers, a shorter work week of far fewer than 35 hours and an $80-a-week minimum pay for unskilled hands.

The startling retirement proposal, which is certain to become one of labor's major objectives in the next two years, comes from Ray Corbett, head of the powerful 2,000,000-member New York State AFL-CIO.

Under the proposal of this group, a federal commission would be set up to deal with those industries affected by automation.

The commission would make certain that all workers over 50 years of age, whose jobs are automated out of existence, be kept on by the industry until "their normal retirement" age. Thus, tens of thousands of workers would be supported for as many as 15 years beyond the age of 50 by their industry.

THOSE WORKERS between 35 and 50 replaced by technological advances would be retrained under this plan for five years. During this time they would be paid at least 70 per cent of their former wages.

Just as startling is the coming policy on the shorter work week. Already, within the labor sanctum, the figure of 35 hours work at 40 hours pay is considered outmoded. The nation's labor leaders believe it simply is too long.

One of those who thinks this way is Al Hayes, who stays out of the spotlight, though as president of the million member International Association of Machinists he is a powerful influence in labor's high command. He told me the other day he believed that "the 35-hour work week will be too long by 1970."

Hayes did not say how short the work week should be, but the general talk "inside" is of 32 hours—and less.

It has been overlooked that when AFL-CIO President George Meany denounced automation as a "curse," he called for ". . . a 35-hour week or less now, and later on God knows only how short it will have to be."

THIS COULD mean a 25-hour week. Virtually everybody has forgotten that a similar national AFL-CIO convention in Bal Harbour exactly two years ago was used as the base for a 20-hour week.

Most delegates and newsmen grinned when they asked Harry Van Arsdale, head of the million-member New York City Central Labor Council, if he meant it when he launched that campaign at labor's fourth biennial convention.

Now at the fifth convention, his union, Local 3, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, has a five - hour day. And Van Arsdale says he'll be around for the four-hour schedule, thus shaving the work day by one hour.

He and his colleagues now are pressing for the summoning of a Full Employment Legislative Conference to Washington shortly, to start the process of trimming the 40-hour week.

Another who believes the 40-hour week is for the Smithsonian Institution is the broguerolling Mike Quill, president of the Transport Workers Union.

QUITE SERIOUSLY he told this correspondent that, if the 25-hour work week is good enough for electricians, it should be good enough for subway and bus line employes across the land.

And Walter Reuther has come to New York with a proposal for a flexible work week. He wants the working hours to decrease each week if unemployment increases. All this would be at 40 hours pay, no matter how few hours were worked.

The nation's labor chiefs are mighty serious about this shorter week proposals. Many of them believe they will have President Kennedy's backing. They point out that the President—though he is fully aware of their plans—made no reference to it in his Friday speech. The labor men believe this to be extremely significant.

Also overlooked by observers at this highly political convention is the AFL-CIO proposal for an $80-a-week minimum wage—$2 an hour for the current 40-hour week. This would mean a sharp increase from the $1.25 an hour which President Kennedy told the delegates was too low.

Obviously, despite reports in some circles that labor's leaders are getting too old to fight, their fight has just begun.

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

The following is a letter which we, the undersigned, would appreciate if you would print in The Review.

As past members of the East Liverpool High School Band, we felt a deep sense of pride in seeing the East Liverpool Marching Band perform for the half-time activities during the Ohio Wesleyan football game on Nov. 9.

They were certainly a credit to their director, Mr. Maola, East Liverpool High School and last but certainly not least to themselves. We heard many favorable comments, and we, being in the music field, certainly realize the time and effort that is consumed for such a performance. The improvement in the quality of the instrumental music program was well noted that day.

The one thing that was noticed above all was the tremendous enthusiasm generated within the group. We only hope that the citizens of East Liverpool are aware of the quality and ability of this fine musical organization. We also hope that they will give their wholehearted support to the band and that the enthusiasm generated will carry over into other areas of school and community life.

Congratulations to the Twin Bands of East Liverpool High School and to their director, Mr. Vincent Maola, for a job well done. We wish you continued good luck and success in the future.

Today In History

Today is Wednesday, November 20th, the 324th day of 1963. There are 41 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1934, the United Daughters of the Confederacy met in New York City for their 40th annual convention. It was the first time the organization had ever met north of the Mason-Dixon line.

Ten years ago — Texas oil man Hugh Roy Cullen gave $2.25 million to the University of Houston following its 37-7 upset football victory over Baylor University.

Five years ago — A federal judge in New York prohibited a move by Bethlehem Steel Co. to absorb the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co.

One year ago—President Kennedy issued an executive order banning racial and religious discrimination in housing built or purchased with federal aid.

Historic Statement

By David Lawrence

Bishops' Words Should Be Read

A remarkably significant pronouncement has just been issued by the Catholic bishops of the United States. Unlike the annual statements of this group in other years, it doesn't emphasize its own sectarian beliefs but embraces instead the objective of many religions as it reminds the American people of Abraham Lincoln's phrase — "This nation under God."

David Lawrence

The Catholic bishops in their statement dealt with the most delicate questions in the relationship of church and state in implicit rather than explicit terms, thus leaving it to observers to apply the expressed principles either to the Supreme Court's decisions on prayer in the schools or to the limitations on government aid to private schools that happen to be founded by religious groups or to many other issues before the Congress of the United States today.

There was no lack of explicitness, however, as the bishops advocated equal rights and opportunities in the community for citizens of every race or color without discrimination or unfairness. This also was specifically proclaimed in a similar statement by the Catholic Bishops 20 years ago.

AN INTIMATION that perhaps the Supreme Court in the past has been more tolerant of religious expression in public institutions than it is today may be derived from the following excerpt of the bishops' statement:

"The recognition of the right of conscience has been basic to our civil traditions. Citizens have found in this a bond of union and the favor of the law in countless cases. No personal right has been so fiercely defended by public authority and so generously construed in court. The tradition of our nation corresponds with the words of Pope John XXIII, 'Every human being has the right to honor God according to the dictates of an unpright conscience and, therefore, the right to worship God privately and publicly.'

"A further bond of union has been the general recognition of religious homage to God as a duty as well as a right."

It's possible, therefore, to conclude that the Supreme Court's recent deicisions in the school-prayer cases were in the bishops' minds as they wrote:

"The increasing establishment of secularism as an official American view of life has been steady and well marked. In our education, religious elements have gradually been eliminated by judicial interpretation. This progressive secularization cuts deeply into our schools, but this is only part of its steady growth. . . .

"There is, it is true, a statistical growth in church affiliation, but this is substantially offset by the disturbing alienation of whole areas — education, work, play — from any effective tie with the creator and judge of men and nations."

In one paragraph, the bishops suggested as "urgent questions" the following:

"Are we coming to regard God and religion as irrelevant to everyday life? Have our relative richness and our passion for technological progress stifled our concern for the spiritual needs of man? Are we trying to solve problems of social justice by expediency, with an eye to human convenience rather than the divine will?"

PERHAPS the passage in the bishops' statement that will produce much discussion for a long time to come is that in which the American judicial system is scrutinized. The bishops said:

"Strongly operative among us is the aspiration to establish justice. The courts must maintain vigilance against procedures which offend this cardinal virtue of the decent society.

But the people must be vigilant, too, lest the courts, however unconsciously and with whatever lofty intent, annul the original determination that ours be a government of laws, not of men.

"Our courts must see that the law of the land is so interpreted as to be free from undue influence of particular schools of thought. It has best served the American tradition when the law reflects a community consensus or common understanding of what is best to achieve the commands of justice."

Does this mean that the frequently mentioned radical or conservative philosophies attributed to individual justices are being criticized?

Does it imply support for the oft-repeated argument that the courts must "follow the election returns" and that the judges must be swayed by contemporaneous emotions?

Does it support the theory that the high court should, like a national legislature, be guided by public opinion, rather than be bound by the literal phrases of the Constitution itself?

EMINENT MEMBERS of the bar as well as famous judges in the past have held that the American people should be governed by a written constitution and that it must not be circumvented or superseded or amended by judicial decision under the guise of an interpretation which seeks to embody the political consensus of the moment.

Whether or not one agrees with all the points made by the Catholic bishops' statement, it is well worth careful reading by persons of all denominations.

Key To Puzzle

Discovery in Newfoundland of the remains of a thousand-year-old Norse settlement offers a solution to an old historical puzzle: Did Vikings visit North America some 500 years before Columbus' voyage?

Archeologists have long thought the Vikings did. But until now, no one has come up with incontrovertible proof — actual ruins or burials.

Dr. Helge Ingstad, a veteran Norwegian explorer from Oslo, not only has found ruins, but they are perhaps the remains of a settlement founded by Leif Ericson himself.

Dr. Ingstad's findings are strongly supported by Dr. Junius Bird, Curator of Archeology at the American Museum of Natural History, and Dr. Henry B. Collins, a Smithsonian Institution anthropologist.

Dr. Ingstad said the site near L'Anse aux Meadows, a small fishing village at the northern tip of the island of Newfoundland, closely fits the description of Leif Ericson's settlement Icelandic sagas.

Moreover, radiocarbon dating of charcoal from the ruins indicates that the site was occupied around A.D. 1000, when Leif and other Viking seafarers traditionally sailed from Greenland to North America.

Radio Purchase Plans Advanced

Wellsville Council Tuesday night gave second readings to legislation for the purchase of police and fire department radio sets and for land in the city's pondage area.

One piece of legislation amends the parking meter ordinance to allow the funds to be used to buy radio equipment and the other appropriates $3,000 from the fund.

THE OTHER piece of legislation is to purchase land in the pondage area near the floodwall off Danbury Ave. from the Dallas Stout estate at a total cost of $640.

The federal government participates in the purchase. The city retains the deed to the property but has to grant a flowage easement to the federal government.

In other business, Council discussed the old problem of collection of delinquent water bills.

Councilman Dwight MacLean first moved that Safety - Service Director Fred Baldasare and Ralph Grafton, water clerk, be notified to send notices to all delinquents over six months giving them until Dec. 20 to make arrangements for payment or the water will be shut off by Jan. 1. MacLean said some bills are over $1,000. His motion died for lack of a second.

A DISCUSSION followed during which Councilman Robert Taggart, water chairman, said the last reports he had received showed replies are being made to notices sent out.

Councilman Donald Miller said he liked MacLean's idea, but "getting the administration to do it is another thing." Miller suggested that the water department be placed in the hands of an independent commission.

Taggart said he believes the director has been doing a good job on the collections, although "he may have slowed up lately."

Council then voted to have the water committee as a whole check the situation and make a report at the next meeting. The committee set a meeting for Saturday at 10 a. m. at City Hall.

MILLER, finance chairman, said the final water bond is due Dec. 1. It is for $3,210. Auditor Edgar Davidson said there is not enough money to pay the bond and asked where it could be obtained. Miller said he directed the auditor to hold up on other bills and meet the obligation. If the delinquent bills are paid, there would be enough money, Miller commented.

The Television Service, Inc., of Weirton asked Council in a letter to grant permission to string television cables throughout town, using telephone and telegraph poles. The request was referred to the franchise committee.

A letter was read from Bernard Ference, 506 Aten Ave., asking for action from Council on his claim for $660 for 22 months storage of an old city truck. The truck was sold for $50.

FERENCE appeared before Council previously and said the claims committee had not acted as a whole in refusing his claim. MacLean, claims chairman, said he was told by Solicitor William Bush not to do anything.

Bush arrived later and recommended no action be taken. He said he has not been able to discover any liability on the part of the city. Council then voted to accept his recommendation and so notify Ference by letter.

Mrs. Kay Drago and William Stroble, council members, were absent.

Howard Lucas of 10th St. spoke from the audience, asking Council to adopt legislation making it mandatory that old condemned buildings be torn down. He said that an old building on a lot next to his home burned and the ends remain standing. He said they are in danger of falling and either hitting his home or injuring children who play nearby.

Miller said attempts have been made by the fire department to have the building razed. He pointed out other examples of how long it takes to get action.

The Rev. Joseph Varner gave the invocation.

Sneddon Elected Salvation Army Board Chairman

Harold Sneddon was elected chairman of the Salvation Army Advisory Board at a meeting Monday noon at the Travelers Hotel.

Other officers named were Atty. Joseph W. Cooper, vice chairman; Mrs. George McCullough, secretary, and O. Earl Greenawalt, treasurer. They will assume their duties in January.

Sneddon succeeds Harold Allison.

The board discussed Christmas activities with Maj. William Hathorn, who said the usual program is planned.

Maj. Hathorn also reported that corps operating fund, which includes transient and general welfare activities, has a $500 indebtedness. Pledges made in the building fund campaign are being met, he said.

Ferro Dividend Raised To $1.80

The Ferro Corp., of Cleveland, international producer of porcelain enamel frits, enameling furnaces and fiberglass, has increased its dividend on common stock to an annual rate of $1.80.

Directors declared a cash dividend of 45 cents for this year's fourth quarter, compared with 40 cents in previous quarters. The latest disbursement is payable Dec. 14 to shareholders of record Nov. 29.

This brings payout this year to $1.65 per share compared with $1.60 last year.

Ferro operates two facilities in East End.

Transit Head, Bank Chairman Dies At 61

NEWARK, Ohio (AP)—Harry Arnold, 61, of Newark, president of the Ohio Rapid Transit Co. and chairman of the board of the First National Bank of Newark, died Wednesday night in a Sarasota, Fla., hospital where he had been a patient for three weeks.

Memorial Held By Post

Memorial services for Kenneth Berg, late councilman, were conducted by Louis Provost, post chaplain, at the meeting of American Legion Post 374 Monday night at the East End home.

Dennis Smith was appointed advisor to the Sons of Legion, and he announced they plan to obligate members and install officers Dec. 2. Dwight Bush, 10th District commander, will be the obligating officer.

James Creagar, County Council first vice president, reported on county membership, and Kenneth Brooks, first vice commander of the post, reported 370 members.

Donations were given to the Columbiana County Health League and the Cerebral Palsy Fund drives. It was announced the council had extended the deadline in the blood donation program to Dec. 20 and those desiring to donate may submit their names and addresses to their posts.

A dance was announced for Saturday night to the music of the "Big 5." Robert C. Landfried, commander, presided.

Relief pitcher Bill Henry saved 13 games for Cincinnati last season.

Bus Franchise Shift Approved By Council

Council gave unanimous approval Tuesday night to an ordinance authorizing transfer of the franchise of Inter - City Transit Co. from John W. Young to his brother - in - law, Victor S. Houser, to continue the same bus operation under the name City Transit System.

Young's company serves the St. Clair Ave. and Lisbon St. lines and also runs to Wellsville. The transfer previously was approved by the franchise committee.

Young has held the city franchise since 1959. Although leaving the local runs, he will continue to operate several inter-city runs in the area.

Ken McBride and Dean Chance led the Los Angeles Angels pitchers last season with 13 wins each.

East Berlin Seen 'Desert' By City Man

concerned for it was on this date that the wall was built, dividing the city, dividing families, separating loved ones and friends, many of whom may never see each other again," he declared.

He described the impact of the barrier on the divided city, located 110 miles inside East Germany and reached only by three air corridors through hostile territory, one autobahn and two railroad lines controlled by the Communists:

"Workmen who live in the East cannot cross to the west to work at their jobs. Factories located in the East section but owned by industrial concerns in the West were appropriated by the Communists and had to be written off at a loss.

"The telephone and telegraph lines have been cut. The only communication between the two areas is by radio or the new electric signboard in the American sector which flashes news releases and other messages into the Russian sector," Hall said.

WEST Berliners do not cross the border into East Berlin for fear of being held there. And Hall, who crossed the border into East Germany with his wife for a tour, admitted he felt some concern for their safety during three hours on the East side of the wall.

They made the trip in a small bus, heeding the advise of a German friend, Dr. Horst Gatske, and the American ministry. They had planned to go by auto, but were advised that they would be less conspicuous by making the visit with a group.

Their border crossing point was "Checkpoint Charlie," scene of many disputes between the U. S. and Russia over military convoys. The Communists delayed the bus at the gate for more than an hour while they conducted exhaustive checks on the passports of the 30 passengers. They also searched the bus, and made each visitor count and report his money.

"The East Berlin guide told and showed us just what we were to see and know," Hall said. The guide, who spoke English, whould attempt to divert the attention of the bus passengers to insignificant points in areas of destruction which the Communists apparently wished to hide as much as possible.

AS THE bus inched through the concrete barriers erected at the border crossing to halt vehicles of defectors, Hall said he noticed that there had been little effort by the East Germans to clean up the destruction of World War II.

The route took the passengers past Hitler's bunker, and near a Catholic Church which Hall described as about the size of St. Ann Catholic Church in East End. But it served an area of over 1 million East Berliners.

One passenger inquired of the guide about the smallness of the church for such a large congregation, proudly exclaiming that "In America, all people go to church."

Infuriated, the guide declared: "Here, there are more important things to do. Here, only old people go to church."

Whenever one of the party would inquire about the "wall," the East German guide would shout angrily, "What wall?" and assert that the group "had been reading capitalistic newspapers."

The guide was touchy on points of inquiry about the "wall" and life under Communist rule the entire journey. Hall told the club. "His speech was canned and devoted entirely to propaganda purposes," he added.

ONLY STOP on the bus trip was at a Russian war memorial 10 miles outside the city, where the passengers were allowed free use of their cameras. Hall related that the bus driver would not slow down near points of interest to permit snapshots. The group was not given permission to visit markets or stores.

The pottery official related he saw very few autos, and that the customary stop signs were missing because of the belighted auto traffic.

Of the East Berliners he saw, no one smiled, or congregated in the streets, and the parks were empty.

Returning to "Checkpoint Charlie," the passengers were again subjected to passport checks, and the Communist guards searched in and under the bus for possible defectors.

HALL said he was "happy to relate that no one defected to paradise." "All passengers arrived back safely in West Berlin," he said.

"The West Berliners we met were energetic, clear thinking, hard - driving individuals accustomed to adversity and hardship. Living in an island in enemy territory makes hardship and harassment a way of life," he told the club.

SINCE 1945, access to Berlin from the West through 110 miles of East Germany has been by three air corridors, one from Hamburg, one from Hanover, and another from Frankfort, Hall explained.

There is one autobahn from Hamburg and two railroad lines controlled by the Communists. Hall told of seeing empty passenger trains pass through the city.

The city couple were met at the airport by Dr. Gatske, who had once contacted Hall from Pittsburgh for a tour of Hall China. They dined at the Berlin Hilton, and from its roof garden the city residents got their first look at Berlin.

HALL SAID West Berlin glowed with street lights, autos, and neon sings of 147 night clubs. But East Berlin was dark, the electrical service shut off at 9 p. m. to conserve fuel.

Touring West Berlin, they found an "outstanding" city of new buildings, wide streets and sidewalks, an excellent sports palace and theaters and a new opera house. Eighty per cent destroyed in the war. West Berlin is now "a sight of which to be proud," Hall said in pointing out its reconstruction was paid for in part by American taxpayers.

He also commented on the wall. "Regardless of what people say or think about the wall, it has, with the help of the East Germans or Russian soldiers, achieved what it was constructed to do."

"THAT IS, it prevents the East German from defecting to the West and adds another irritant to the West Germans and the three powers supporting them."

"This squat, ugly pile of concrete stone, and barbed wire that cuts a city in two, breaks the hearts of millions on either side, and mocks the conscience of mankind is a fact.

"We may feel that the wall is something we cannot accept, but be that as it may, the wall is there and accomplishing its designed purpose," Hall said.

"THE IMPACT of the wall on Berlin is something a visitor will never forget," he told the club.

He asserted the city will be a center of disagreement for years and possibly centuries to come.

"Berlin will be a festering sore until it is either united with the West or the East. In my opinion, the West cannot afford to lose it," he declared.

Hall, who found time to visit a Rotary Club in Berlin where he "didn't understand a word but enjoyed the food," was introduced by Robert E. Boyce, program chairman.

Alvin T. Babb, vice president, presided in the absence of Ralph A. Finley, president. An estimated 75 attended, the club's largest attendance in several years. Hall screened several slides of Berlin scenes.

Post Office, and authorities should be contacted to determine if officials would be interested in the city building. He said the facilities might be rented for $3,600 to $4,800 annually.

COUNCILMAN Donald Hissam said he would be willing to move the municipal offices to the second floor of the present City Hall and rent the first floor to the post office.

In other action, Council discussed a letter written by Charles D. Taylor of Florida Ave. concerning the traffic hazard for school students at 6th St. and Carolina Ave.

Taylor said use of the new primary school near 6th St. has increased the number of youngsters crossing Carolina Ave. at the intersection, which he termed "one of the most dangerous in our city."

He said the safety precautions for the intersection have apparently been overlooked because there are no signs designating the school crossing or school speed zone. He pointed out Carolina Ave. is heavily traveled with Route 30 traffic, pottery workers, race track patrons, and the school buses make turns at the site.

TAYLOR SAID city police provide some protection, but an officer is not always available when called to duty elsewhere.

Councilman Wayne Hutton said he believes the State Road Commission should place a blinker light at the intersection. Solicitor William Ingram pointed out the Board of Education is responsible for children going to and from school.

Mayor Harry Abrams said there is no school patrol boy system in the city at present. He said police are spending two hours daily at the crossing to aid the children.

It was pointed out the county furnishes two school guards in Newell and one in Grandview.

HISSAM SAID he believes the Board of Education or county officials should be advised concerning the condition. It was suggested Robert Titus, traffic engineer for the commission, be written about the matter.

Council approved a motion by Hissam that Mayor Abrams appoint a committee to study the problem and confer with the various agencies concerned.

Chaney asked Ingram if he had obtained any notice from the Hancock County prosecutor or West Virginia attorney general's office on whether federal liquor permits or gambling stamp were sufficient evidence for obtaining a search and seizure warrant against establishments with such permits.

Ingram said he had not heard from either office.

COUNCIL granted Kology building committee chairman permission to obtain paint for redecorating the front office of the City Hall, using city employes.

P. H. Bolin of Montana Ave. was given permission to break a curb for a driveway at his home, and Orin Stevenson of Indiana Ave. was permitted to paint his driveway curb area yellow to prevent motorists from parking and blocking the drive.

Council authorized repainting of curbing on the east side of 1st St. from Carolina Ave. to Pennsylvania Ave.

The survey was undertaken to determine the condition of the city water system and possible improvements.

Hutton said he would like to have all interested residents attend.

Board Named For St. Clair Water Area

A five-member board of trustees for a new water and sewer district for St. Clair and parts of Liverpool Township has been appointed by Columbiana County officials.

Chosen for the board were David Beatty of Dairy Ln. and Wayne Barnard of Glenmoor for five-year terms, John M. Duffy of Calcutta for four years, and Emil Dominick of Park Way Ext. and Stewart Snyder of Glenmoor for three years.

Beatty was appointed by Probate Judge Louis Tobin, Barnard by Judge Raymond Buzzard and Duffy by the county commissioners as prescribed by regulation. These three then selected Dominick and Snyder.

Pay for the trustees of the district — called the Southeastern Water and Sewer District— is set at $36 annually.

The commissioners formally filed a petition to create the district in July at the request of residents of the township area as a result of insufficient water and sewage problems in some areas.

The proposal to form the district was unopposed at a hearing Sept. 5. Residents will have an opportunity to vote on whatever construction plans are eventually offered.

Judge Buzzard at the September meeting set a six-month period in which the district can establish plans for the water and sewer problem and estimate costs before any vote can be scheduled.

Jail Term Given Man On Assault; 2nd Draws Fine

One man went to County Jail and his badly beaten opponent drew a fine of $25 and costs when the two appeared today before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on charges growing out of a fight at a Dresden Ave. tavern that was touched off by an argument over a 25-cent bet on a bowling machine score.

Convicted of assault and battery, Michael Gatrell, 26, of 907 Alton St., was given a 10-day term in the County Jail. He also was fined $10 and costs on an intoxication charge.

Arlie Davis, 29, of 603 E. 3rd St., pleading guilty to a charge of disorderly conduct by fighting, was fined $25 and costs.

Police said the two were arrested Friday at 10:50 p. m. at the Buckeye Tavern. Hospitalized several days, Davis appeared in court today with his face still showing signs of severe cuts and bruises. Each blamed the other as the aggressor in statements to the court.

"You're lucky you're not facing me on a manslaughter charge," Judge Chertoff told Gatrell. "This man was beaten severely and he has been in the hospital since then."

Widow Given Council Post

nation, Willshaw's elevation and the death of Mr. Berg.

Edwards, a Democrat, resigned Oct. 31 to move to Concord, Calif. After Willshaw, a Republican, won the presidency at the general election, he was appointed to the unexpired term by the mayor.

Bucher won an at - large seat at the Nov. 5 election for a two-year term beginning Jan. 1. Under the appointments, he and Willshaw — in effect — are beginning service in their new offices early.

When the unexpired terms run out Dec. 31, the full terms will begin the following day.

The future of the Second Ward seat still is in doubt for the new biennium, as Council's action last night named Mrs. Berg only for the unexpired tenure of her husband.

THE REPLACEMENT for the full term will be subject to vote by the new Council Jan. 1. With Mr. Berg's seat then vacant, it will be divided, 5-1, in favor of the Democrats.

Bucher's election also was unique in the city's history. For the second time in the space of three years, he was picked to fill an unexpired term.

Bucher first was named to Council Oct. 4, 1960, to serve the remainder of the unexpired term of Clinton R. Seevers, Democrat, who moved to California. He also assumed an at-large seat on that occasion.

Mrs. Berg, a housewife and a grandmother, resides at 730 Bradshaw Ave. She has two daughters, Brenda Jane Berg, at home, and Mrs. Gus (Cynthia) Dauka of East Liverpool.

"I appreciate the honor of being appointed the first woman Council member in the history of East Liverpool," she told Council after assuming her seat.

"I AM HONORED by all that you have done for me. It would have made my husband very proud."

Bucher is a template maker at the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co. He is married and the father of two daughters, 15 and 18. He is a member of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church, American Legion Post 374, the Elks Lodge and the Blue and White Nonpareil Club.

He attended Lincoln School and East Liverpool High School, where he played basketball and football. He served in the Army 2½ years in World War II.

Filling of the two vacancies was the first business taken up by Council when it convened in a session postponed from Monday night because of Mr. Berg's death.

Clerk Lawrence J. Zollinger first read Willshaw's resignation as a member-at-large and a letter from the mayor announcing his appointment as president.

Then Willshaw announced the election to fill his former post. Zollinger read the only application—from Bucher.

Bucher was nominated and elected by acclamation. Then he was sworn in by the judge in a brief recess and took his seat.

NEXT, COUNCIL moved to fill the Second Ward seat.

Applications were read from James F. Cunningham, 149 Reynolds St., Democrat, whom Mr. Berg defeated in the general election, and Frank J. Youst Jr., 1015 Bradshaw Ave., a Republican who sought the nomination unsuccessfully in the May primaries.

Councilman S. James Welch then nominated Mrs. Berg. He was seconded by Councilman Floyd Murray.

As there were three nominations, Council voted by secret ballot. The count showed six votes for Mrs. Berg and none for the other two candidates.

Council recessed again while Mrs. Berg took the oath of office and turned over her bond. Then she assumed her seat and the meeting proceeded.

Council met in a chamber with doors draped in black and white crepe in respect to Mr. Berg's memory.

WITH SEVEN members now in the chairs, Councilman Robert W. Sample Jr. nominated Murray for president pro tem, replacing Willshaw. Sample previously had been mentioned for the post, but declined.

The nominations were closed and Murray was elected pro tem by acclamation. He will preside in the absence of the president.

As the meeting drew to a close, Willshaw announced a new list of committees made necessary by the changes in membership.

With the chairman named first in each instance, the committees are:

Finance: Sample, Edward Massey and Bucher; ordinance: Bucher, Welch and Murray; claims: Massey, Frank Duffy and Mrs. Berg; streets: Welch, Murray and Mrs. Berg.

Franchise: Duffy, Massey and Mrs. Berg; rules: Welch, Bucher and Sample, and planning, Murray, Duffy and Bucher.

Willshaw named Sample as a Council representative on the Police Pension Board, taking the post formerly held by Willshaw. Murray is the other Council representative on the pension board.

—:—

AT THE OUTSET of the meeting, Council enacted a formal resolution eulogizing Mr. Berg and reviewing his career in civic and political affairs.

It cited his service as president of a parent - teacher organization and a veteran of World War II.

"In his work, Mr. Berg was thorough and courteous to fellow citizens, councilman and others," it said.

Copies of the resolution were delivered to Mrs. Breg.

Most of the councilmen also took the floor to praise Mr. Berg's memory.

"As chairman of the street committee, he answered calls day and night and on Sundays," Welch said. "He went out on the job in all kinds of weather."

"He was a doggoned good neighbor and that's one of the finest things you can say of a man," Bucher said.

"He was a gentleman and one of the best friends I ever had," Massey asserted.

—:—

"HIS DEATH was an awful blow to me," Murray said. "The city has lost one of the best councilmen it ever had."

"I had more co-operation from Kenny and his committee than from anyone here at City Hall," Duffy said.

"His wit and good fellowship will be missed by many of us and his service will be missed by the entire city," Willshaw said.

Meters

there are many ways — in addition to outright purchases—that the cost of the meters might be financed. He suggested that Council advise him of the various proposals it has in mind in order that they can be incorporated in the legislation.

Council President George E. Willshaw replied that the ordinance committee will work with the solicitor on preparation of the legislation.

Several parking meter companies have sent representatives to East Liverpool in the last few years to make surveys and recommendations.

and Market St.; 5th St. from Broadway to Peach Alley; 6th St. from the City Hall area to Washington St. and the intersecting segments of Washington St. and Market Sts., including the Diamond.

Dayton Allen, president, will be official representative of ELMA at the lighting ceremony.

ALSO ATTENDING will be members of the ELMA downtown improvement committee who helped make the project a reality — Ralph Finley, Don Eckert, Robert E. Boyce, Edwin Maloney and W. Leland Thompson.

The committee circulated petitions in which owners of business property agreed to assume an assessment to pay the difference in cost between the present system and the new lights. The assessment includes the cost of the fixtures as well as the additional current, ELMA pointed out.

The merchants' group also commended two city officials for their work on the project — Engineer George Broomgren, for measurements, mapping and technical advice, and Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper, for handling the legal details. It cited officials of Ohio Power for their aid, including Donald Baxter, W. E. Williams and William Black.

—:—

AFTER circulating the petitions to guarantee the assessments, the merchants' committee obtained the co-operation of Council in enacting the necessary legislation and Mayor Goodballet and Safety - Service Director Robert Owen in handling the details of awarding the contract to the utility.

The old light poles and fixtures are scheduled for removal when the new system is in service.

Trial

concealed the weapon in his belt.

In the evening, the statement said, Brown went home and was followed by Cochrane. Brown said he went into his house and warned Cochrane to stay away. Brown said he turned and started after Cochrane in a "blind rage" with the knife drawn, but couldn't remember anything after that.

The prosecutor said he is attempting to prove Brown intended to slay Cochrane in a "spirit of revenge and jealousy" over the victim's alleged wooing of Mrs. Gladys Brown. The prosecutor alleges that Brown's wife had an illegitimate child to Cochrane.

One of the state's witnesses yesterday was Mrs. Helena Fair of North Weirton, who testified she had seen Brown and Cochrane in a North Weirton tavern May 5, and had heard Brown threaten to kill. She said she knew Mrs. Brown had an illegitimate child, but didn't know if Cochrane was the father.

She testified Brown told her in the tavern that " 'if he keeps messing with me, I'm going to kill him'." But in cross - examination, she testified Cochrane's name had not been mentioned in the threat, and she had been drinking heavily, her drinks including two 16-ounce glasses of wine.

The prosecution also called Lt. Edward Sikora, Det. Sgt. Edward Giallucco and Sylvester Spruiel of Steubenville, who had been with the pair before the fatal stabbing. Recalled by Tarr was Dr. Michael Sulk, pathologist, and Patrolman Donald Mentzer of Weirton police.

About 15 spectators were in the gallery yesterday. The prosecution hammered that alleged jealousy over an affair between Cochrane and Brown's wife was the motive for the slaying.

Questioning Set Thursday

Widow Of Partner Called In Senate's Baker Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators investigating the steaming Robert G. Baker case have called the widow of one of his partners as their first outside witness.

Mrs. Gertrude Novak will be questioned Thursday at a closed session of the Senate Rules Committee, Chairman B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C., announced.

Mrs. Novak's husband Alfred, whose death March 3, 1962, was ruled a suicide, was among Baker's partners in the Carousel Motel at Ocean City, Md. She will be the committee's first witness other than Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del.

Williams has supplied the committee with information he gathered in a one-man investigation before Baker resigned as secretary to the Senate Democratic majority Oct. 7 after questions of possible conflict of interest were raised about his outside business interests.

Meanwhile, Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., charged Tuesday night that Baker had a hand in keeping him from a choice committee assignment in 1961.

Yarborough told a newsman that after he lost his bid for a seat on the Judiciary Committee he learned from friends that Baker had told some people:

"We couldn't afford to let Yarborough have that seat. He would then be in a position to control Texas' judicial patronage, or would be in a position to prevent Lyndon from controlling it."

The Senator understood that by "Lyndon" Baker meant Vice President Johnson, who has not always seen eye-to-eye with his fellow Texan.

Did Yarborough ask Baker about the report? "No, I never asked Bobby Baker anything," he said. "I never trusted him. It wasn't the first time I'd had experience with him."

Some other liberal senators have also complained that Baker, a protege of Johnson, favored the conservative Southern bloc in the Senate.

Council Changes Regulation For Milk Inspection

Minor changes in a 1954 ordinance regulating inspection of local dairies and concerns whose products they distribute were voted into law by Council Tuesday night.

Producers within a 50 - mile radius of East Liverpool are required to pay a fee of $3 a year for inspection. Receiving plants here are required to deduct the fee from money due the producers.

The same regulation remains in effect, but with the provision that the local plants shall not be required to collect fees for more than 400 producers.

The ordinance says the change was made because "in some cases the number of milk producers delivering products is so high that it would result in an exorbitant cost to the plant to pay and collect from the producers. . ."

The change was recommended by the Health Board. The balance of the long regulatory ordinance was left unchanged.

Woman Faces Court On Embezzling Count

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Mrs. Barbara Lucille Naayers, 31-year-old mother of five children, is to appear in U. S. District Court here to answer charges of embezzling several thousand dollars.

Mrs. Naayers, of suburban Reynoldsburg, was arrested by the FBI Tuesday and later freed on $1,000 bond. No date was set for her court appearance.

She is a former bookkeeper for the Reynoldsburg Bank and the City National Bank & Trust Co. of Columbus, which merged last April.

The warrant charges her with embezzling an undetermined amount from the two banks from August 1960 to June 1963. Audits disclosed a shortage of $11,000 but authorities said they were not sure Mrs. Naayers was responsible for the entire amount.

3 From Wellsville Draw Traffic Penalty

Four area motorists, including three from Wellsville, were among those fined for traffic violations at hearings Tuesday night before Jefferson County Judge Augustus H. Evans Jr. at Toronto. Fined were:

Homer C. Gray, 1603 Chester Ave., $10 and costs for speeding; Robert L. Coleman, 37, of 1433 Main St., $5 and costs for failure to signal a turn; David M. Brookman, 19, of 601 Riverside Ave., fine suspended, costs paid, for driving left of center, and Wilmont Mushrush, 22, of Empire, $5 and costs for a stop sign violation.

Both Brookman and Coleman were cited by the Wintersville State Highway Patrol after separate accidents the past week.

Planner Unit Size Slashed

Complying with a ruling from Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper, Council approved legislation Tuesday night to reduce the size of the City Planning Commission from seven members to five.

The commission now will be comprised of the mayor, safety-service director and three "citizen" members. At present, it is made up of the mayor, director, chairman of the Board of Thompson Park Commissioners and four "citizen" members.

Cooper, in an opinion given Council about two weeks ago, said that the size of the commission should be changed to comply with the provisions of the State Code.

The commission will be dealing with state and federal authorities soon on financial aid and other details of a city "master plan" and its membership should follow the state law so that its status or actions cannot be questioned, the solicitor said.

At present, the members are Mayor Bert H. Goodballet, Safety-Service Director Robert Owen, Judge Louis Tobin, as head of the park board, and William Rea, George Steele, E. L. Wheatley and Don Eckert, the "citizen" members.

The new ordinance automatically drops the Park Board head as a member. It also reduces the number of "citizen" members by one.

If an Ohio city has a park commission established by a vote of the people, then the chairman sits on the planning commission, Cooper pointed out. But since East Liverpool's park board was not established in such a way and has jurisdiction only over Thompson Park, the chairman should not serve on the planning group, he ruled.

Sanity Hearing Set In Husband Murder

BATAVIA, Ohio (AP)—A sanity hearing for Mrs. Helen Nathanson, 49, charged with murdering her husband, Mel, will be held Dec. 3 by Common Pleas Court Judge M. Dale Osborne.

Mrs. Nathanson was returned Tuesday to the Clermont County jail from Lima State Hospital, where she had undergone observation. A hospital report said she "must be considered insane."

Pair Arrested In Waterfront Pilfering Probe

CLEVELAND (AP) — A former International Longshoreman's Union steward and another man have been arrested by Cleveland's Port and Harbor Patrol and U. S. customs agents in connection with investigations into pilfering on the waterfront.

The former steward, who had been ordered off the docks last November after a shooting fray, was arrested Tuesday near the Cleveland Stevedore Co. Docks on the lakefront when police found a blackjack and .22-caliber pistol in the glove compartment of his automobile, police reported. He also had a shotgun which he said he used for hunting.

A customs agent said the other man was arrested after he pulled a knife on the agent, who had stopped him for questioning in the theft of a bottle of whiskey on the docks. The man was held in county jail for assaulting a federal officer.

Council Gets Data

Progress Listed On Gas Line Job

Progress on a $40,000 Ohio Valley Gas Co. project for installation of new mains and regulator systems in East Liverpool was explained to Council Tuesday night by Harold Sneddon, district manager for the utility.

Briefing Council on details of a project which he first explained last July 16, Sneddon reported on work which has been completed and outlined other jobs to be undertaken soon. Most of the work is being done by the firm of Wirt & Stern of Wooster, pipe line contractors.

THE COMPANY will install 1,200 feet of 6-inch line in the Armstrong Ln. area and place a new regulator at Azalea Ave. The work will improve service from Gardendale to Oakmont, he said.

It also will install 1,360 feet of 4-inch main on Lisbon St. from a point near the bottom of the grade to a site near Black Oak Alley in the vicinity of the city street barn.

Another 300 feet of 10 - inch main will be laid from the foot of Lisbon St. upgrade to the W. 9th St. area, improving Sunnyside service, Sneddon said. In a project in the North Side Ave. area, 4- and 10-inch mains will be laid, improving service from that point to Boring Ln., he said.

Work has been finished on an East End project in which 983 feet of 8-inch pipe and 328 feet of 6-inch main were installed on Etruria St. in the Maryland Ave. area, replacing a 4-inch line.

Three more residents appeared before Council personally, two complaining of the condition of the East End Run.

GEORGE PRATT, 710 Central Ave., was first to ask cleaning of the run's bed. He said it is blocked with debris near his property.

Safety-Service Director Robert Owen said the street department recently cleaned out the section of the run near Pratt's property, but worked only in the area where the stream flows through city property.

"That's as far as our responsibility goes," the director said.

Rudy Halpate of Walnut St. complained that debris was thrown into the run after a Mulberry St. storeroom was remodeled recently.

Council asked the street committee to check both complaints Saturday.

William Rea of Erie St. thanked the street department for recent work in smoothing Erie St.

A petition signed by five householders requested installation of two street lights on Elysian Way. It also was referred to the street committee.

COUNCILMAN S. James Welch said investigation is proceeding on a Lions Club proposal to build a pedestrian safety island on Broadway near E. 4th St.

He said the street committee hopes to meet Saturday morning to discuss the project with the Lions committee, Owen, Police Chief Americo J. Radeschi, Solicitor Joseph Cooper and Engineer George Bloomgren.

Councilman Floyd Murray said motorists have complained of loose slag on Erie St. which causes their cars to skid.

Councilman Robert W. Sample Jr. said the ordinance committee expects to present at the next meeting Dec. 2 legislation spelling out regulations for operation of the incinerator department. The legislation has been under investigation since last summer.

Councilman Frank Duffy commented that he had read of the managers of two downtown stores being cited by police "for putting a few tires on the sidewalk."

"ON ANDREWS Ave., we have a condition where battery chargers and tires and hoses and many other things are scattered on the sidewalk and nothing is done about it," Duffy said.

He mentioned no names, but it was an obvious reference to the M. & A. Motors used car lot, of which he complained several times in the past.

"I hope the new administration does something about it," Duffy said.

Cooper gave each Council member a list of various traffic regulation changes that have been proposed in the last few years, but never voted into law. He said he expects to present the changes in ordinance form soon, but only after any necessary revisions have been made on Council's recommendation.

Council received a petition signed by seven persons asking that a two - hour parking restriction be removed from the section of Broadway between E. 3rd St. and the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. tracks. It was referred to the street committee.

A LETTER was received from John Trimboli of Youngstown, district representative of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes, asking enactment of a "working agreement" to cover the union's relations with the city government. The letter was given to the ordinance committee for investigation.

Many city employes are members of Local 677 of the AFL-CIO union.

The claims committee was given a bill from $50.25 from William R. Stoppe of Woodbine Ave., alleging damage to his car Oct. 26. He said his auto was damaged on Market St., but did not list any details.

A petition was received from 43 residents of the Bradshaw-Riley Ave. district asking Council to establish "proper recreation facilities" in the area. Signers included several children.

"IN OUR neighborhood, we have nowhere to play except on the street," the petition said. The petition did not explain what type of facilities the signers sought. It was referred to the East Liverpool Recreation Council.

Council also received a letter from Mrs. Loretta J. Flasco, city relief director, asserting that the State Legislature is reported preparing to consider a bill that would abolish local relief areas and consolidate them into a county system. She asked Council to oppose the proposal.

If the legislature approves the bill, it will mean East Liverpool residents will have to go to Lisbon for relief needs, she said.

The proposed law already is being studied by the ordinance committee, so Mrs. Flasco's letter was received and filed.

—:—

THE PLANNING committee was asked to investigate a letter from Dan McDonald of Dresden Ave. requesting that steps be taken so that his property will not be cut off from access to the new Freeway. McDonald's property, fronting 575 feet on old Route 30, is a short distance inside the north city limits.

He said it might find use as an industrial site, and therefore, should not be cut off from access to the new highway.

The meeting opened with invocation by Sample.

'Santa Aides' Give Boost To Tree Project

Ever try to acquire a 40-foot spruce tree, have it cut down and hauled a couple of miles and then erected again as a Christmas decoration — all at no expense?

The East Liverpool Merchants Association accomplished that feat Tuesday, thanks to the help of many individuals and business firms who acted as unofficial "aides" to Santa Claus.

The logistics table would have done credit to a small military operation.

To start at the beginning, the huge blue spruce was donated by Richard C. Sant, on whose property it stood on Park Way.

Carl Muschweck of Ohio Ave. volunteered to cut down the big tree at no cost. Then the Ohio Valley Gas Co. furnished a truck with a winch so that the tree could be hauled across Sant's property to the street without damaging the lawn.

The tree was loaded onto a lowboy trailer furnished by Mike Pusateri, excavating contractor. It was placed there with an assist from a truck and boom loaned by the Central Neon Sign Co.

When the tree got to the Diamond, the Ohio Power Co. provided a truck with a boom that was used in getting the tree righted after it had been erected. The neon firm's truck and boom also were used in the erecting job.

The job of raising the tree in a spot in the center of the Diamond was handled by the street department, assisted by the city electrical department. And the police department provided a cruiser escort for the tree from Park Way to the Diamond.

On hand when the tree was erected were members of the ELMA Christmas activities committee, including Harold Allison, Dayton Allen, William Kozel Jr. and Sant.

That's the story behind the tree's appearance on the Diamond yesterday. It will be trimmed when crews complete erecting lights across business district streets, ELMA said.

Yule Tree Producers To Convene Thursday

LISBON — The Christmas Tree Producers Association will meet Thursday at 6:30 p. m. at Heck's Restaurant in Columbiana, with a variety of matters awaiting action, according to Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture.

The agenda will include: Amending present laws to help prevent theft of trees; nomination of a delegate to the state meeting; discussion of wholesale demand for graded Christmas trees and demonstration of the uses of branches and greens for roping, wreaths and swags.

The meeting is open to anyone interested in Christmas tree producing, Myers said.

Mayor Dies At 48

TORONTO, Ont. (AP) — Donald Summerville, 48, mayor of Toronto, died Tuesday after suffering a heart attack while playing in an exhibition hockey game.

Group To List District Sites For Industry

The newly - organized Community Improvement Corp. said today it has started to compile data on all available industrial sites and buildings in East Liverpool and the adjoining area.

The data will be used primarily as a guide for the Ohio Development Department, the new state agency at Columbus which seeks to interest industries throughout the nation in locating plants in this state.

The CIC asked persons with information on sites or buildings to furnish it with a full description. The data should include the size of building or acreage, its location, available facilities such as railways, highways and utilities, and the name of the owner or agent to be contacted, the CIC said.

The CIC's officers were told in a recent conference with Development Department representatives to obtain all available information and forward it to the state agency at Columbus.

The Development Department then will turn to the East Liverpool data whenever it receives a request for a site in Eastern Ohio. The department said most of the queries it receives are for one - floor buildings with ample acreage for parking or expanison.

Alvin T. Babb is chairman of the CIC, organized a few months ago as a non - profit corporation to seek to encourage industrial development and expansion in the East Liverpool area.

The CIC said data on available sites may be mailed to it in care of Post Office Box 94.

Dear friends,

If the deceased was covered by Social Security, benefit claims should be filed promptly. The death benefit is equal to three times the monthly benefit but not less than $120.00 or more than $255.

We gladly assist the family with the filling and filing of such forms.

Respectfully,

Richard C. Martin

Jury Chosen In Civil Action

A jury of seven women and five men was seated tentatively this morning in Municipal Court to hear a civil action in which the Royal State Bank of New York seeks judgment of $1,000, plus interest and costs, from George Prokop, doing business as Prokop Dental Laboratories, 247 W. 6th St.

Atty. Ben H. Berman represents the defendant. The plaintiff's counsel is Louis Gelbman of the firm of Nadler & Nadler at Youngstown. Judge Samuel M. Chertoff is presiding.

As the case opened at 10 a. m., Judge Chertoff addressed the venire of 18. He explained the duties and functions of a jury and traced the history of the system back to King John's signing of the Magna Carta in 1215.

Court attaches said the trial may continue into Thursday, as many legal and technical points are involved.

Jurors seated tentatively are:

Hazel Baumgarner of Midway Ln., Henry Kinsey, 630 Blackmore St., Paul Hanna, 1118 Riverview St.; Gladys Cook, 316 Thompson Ave., Frank Yost, 1015 Bradshaw Ave., Annabelle Keys, 340 E. 8th St.

Marcella Kidder, 1572 Etruria St., Lawrence J. Zollinger, 108 W. 5th St., Alma Gregg, 676 Lincoln Ave., Everett J. Bosio, 1844 Anderson Blvd., Cora A. Gill, 969 Church St., and Agnes Weisand, 935 Kent St.

Hammondsville PTA Will Hold Bake Sale

HAMMONDSVILLE — A bake sale was set tentatively for Dec. 17 at the grade school at the meeting of the Hammondsville Parent - Teacher Association Monday night.

Entertainment was provided by the Fifth and Sixth Grade rooms of Mrs. Freda Ault, who also won the attendance banner.

Hero Of Disaster At Columbus 38 Years Ago Dies

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Death has claimed W. V. (Big Bill) Martin, hero of a disaster during construction of a Columbus, Ohio, skyscraper 38 years ago.

Martin, 70, was a steelworker helping build the Leveque-Lincoln Tower in Columbus in 1925 when workmen ran into deadly "black damp" gas in a shaft.

He volunteered to be lowered into the shaft to rescue four men who had toppled from ladders. He wore a gas mask but was unable to see and ripped it off while fastening ropes to the bodies.

All four were pronounced dead but Martin got out alive.

He was given a $1,000 reward by the American Insurance Union, which built the 46-story building.

Youth, 15, Wounded Looting Officer's Car

CINCINNATI (AP) — A 15-year-old boy was shot and critically wounded late Tuesday night when he tried to escape on foot after a policeman found him looting his unmarked car in the Walnut Hills section.

Lt. Col. Jacob Schott said the youth ignored his commands to stop and so he fired. The bullet struck the youth, identified as Alfred Givens of Bethel, in the lower part of the back.

Action Launched For Senate Study Of Lakes, Seaway

CLEVELAND (AP) — The wheels are being put in motion for a Senate subcommittee to tour Great Lakes ports to study shipping on the lakes and the St. Lawrence Seaway.

A letter from Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, explaining the purposes and scope of the inquiry was read to the Council of Lake Erie Ports at its meeting Tuesday.

Lausche announced that the committee would meet Dec. 10 in Washington with officials of the Commerce Department for a briefing on the Seaway's problems. No dates have been set for the hearings to be held in lakes ports.

Lausche has said the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Seaway system is realizing only a modest proportion of available traffic and that it is doubtful that it will reach its estimated potential in 1965 of 66.2 million tons of cargo.

Police Will Withdraw Charges In Burglary

Because both defendants already are serving sentences, the police department will withdraw Municipal Court charges accusing two men of burglary of the Iron City Distributing Co. warehouse on S. Market St. Nov. 10, Lt. W. E. McDaniel said today.

Affidavits filed by McDaniel named Ronald Edward Stoffel, 18, of Broadway and Charles E. Weyand, 20, of Henry Ave. Two juveniles also were involved.

Weyand withdrew a former request for probation and was sentenced to a 1-15-year term in the Mansfield Reformatory on a charge of burglarizing the Caplan Scrap Yard on the River Rd. last July. Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin sentenced Stoffel to a six-month term in County Jail — with five months suspended — on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of the two minors involved in the warehouse entry.

Houston pitchers allowed the fewest walks (378) in the major leagues last season.

...THE NEWS IS OUT!...

New Timetable For Roasting TableRite Turkey

TableRite Turkey is as American and traditional as the American Constitution and Plymouth Rock. The news is out and good news it is! The roasting time for cooking turkey has been cut down considerably. Extensive research in the test kitchens of the Poultry & Egg National Board confirms this.

PURCHASED READY-TO COOK WEIGHT	OVEN TEMPERATURE	INTERIOR TEMPERATURE	GUIDE TO TOTAL ROASTING TIME
6 to 8 lbs.	325° F.	185° F.	2-2½ hours
8 to 12 lbs.	325	185	2½-3 hours
12 to 16 lbs.	325	185	3-3¼ hours
20 to 24 lbs.	325	185	4¼-5½ hours
Turkeys roasted in foil take less time, but in a hotter oven
6 to 8 lbs.	450° F.	185° F.	1½-2 hours
8 to 12 lbs.	450	185	2-2½ hours
12 to 16 lbs.	450	185	2½-3 hours
16 to 20 lbs.	450	185	3-3½ hours
20 to 24 lbs.	450	185	3½-4 hours

Wise Homemakers buy TableRite and plan to start bird 20 to 30 minutes ahead of schedule to avoid possible delay. Allow time for turkey to set, make gravy and arrange attractively on platter.

...and a Happy Thanksgiving from your IGA!

Michigan State Picked To Defeat Illinois In Battle For Rose Bowl

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Harvard and Yale have been playing each other in football since 1875 and their games virtually always are in doubt until the final tackle. Saturday's fray shouldn't be any different.

Although the Harvards come into this one needing a victory for a possible Ivy League crown, don't lock the Yales out.

Last week there was a bit of left-handed forecasting with 41 correct guesses and 13 wrong ones. That's a .759 average, a sharp slsmp from the .807 figure of the week before. The season's totals now are 354-121 for .746.

It is rare when the final big Saturday of the season pairs the last two remaining contenders in at least two conferences against each other. That's the case in both the Big Ten and Big Eight circuits.

So here's how things should turn out:

Michigan State over Illinois: Sherm Lewis, the Mighty Mouse of Michigan State, is the irresistible force while Dick Butkus of Illinois is the immovable object. This time the immovable object is the loser and the Spartans win the Rose Bowl berth.

Oklahoma over Nebraska: Not since the glory days of Biff Jones and the 1940 Rose Bowl season have the Cornhuskers flashed the muscle as shown by Dennis Claridge and his mates. But Oklahoma has muscle and speed.

Washington over Washington State: Out in Seattle they say that the star of the Washington team is the unspillable Junior Coffey. The Cougars will discover it is true.

Pittsburgh over Penn State: The Pitt quarterback merely has to Dial M for Murder — and either Fred Mazurek or Paul Martha will answer.

Auburn over Florida State: Jimmy Sidle and his mates with relative ease, unless the entire Tiger is busy thinking about next week's game with Alabama.

Southern California over UCLA: The clock has struck the midnight hour for the Cinderella boys from UCLA.

Duke over North Carolina: Jay Wilkinson will be the difference even though the Tar Heels have players named Edge and Braine.

Others: Iowa State over Drake, Purdue over Indiana, Iowa over Notre Dame, Kansas over Missouri, Ohio State over Michigan, Wisconsin over Minnesota, Oklahome State over Kansas State, Bowling Green over Xavier, Cincinnati over Miami (Ohio), Toledo over Detroit, Wichita over Idaho State, Illinois over North Texas State.

Bauer Given 1-Year Pact With Orioles

BALTIMORE (AP) — Hank Bauer looks upon managing the Baltimore Orioles as a simple thing.

"The ball players know me, if I ask them to do something, they'll do it for me," he believes. "They know I'm strictly for the ball player."

He displayed this camaraderie at a news conference Tuesday confirming his engagement in a one-year contract as the new Oriole manager.

During a lull in questioning by newsmen, the relaxed Bauer said to the back of the room: "Got any questions, Jim?"

"You're the only man with a job," shot back Gentile, the first baseman who is one of the Orioles' problem children.

"I don't think you have anything to worry about," said Bauer reassuringly.

Lee MacPhail general manager, made it clear he hired Bauer to replace Billy Hitchcock in hopes he would get more out of the Orioles as individual players.

"I think he has the quality of leadership to put some spark in our ball club to change it from just another first division club to a true contender," is the way MacPhail expressed it.

The feeling for Bauer among the players was shown by the presence at the news conference of third baseman Brooks Robinson, pitchers Milt Pappas and Dick Hall in addition to Gentile.

Except for the possible acquisition of a left-hand batting outfielder, Bauer said he planned to start the same Orioles who finished fourth the past season — "until proven otherwise."

"Our most pressing problem is scoring runs," he declared. "I think the pitching is very good and the defense good."

Kansas State End Selected Top Lineman

By The Associated Press

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) — "The measure of a great football player is how he performs in the clutch, and Denby Blackwell's performance against Iowa State last weekend measured up to the fondest dreams of any coach."

That was Coach Doug Weaver of Kansas State speaking Tuesday after he was informed that Blackwell had been chosen Associated Press Lineman of the Week.

Blackwell, a mathematics major from St. Louis, caught a fourth-quarter pass on a 25-yard play that set up K-State's clinching touchdown in the 21-10 victory over Iowa State. The victory snapped a string of 26 losses in the Big Eight Conference.

Blackwell wasn't even supposed to be in the game at that point, but Weaver hadn't been able to substitute Ralph McFillen, the Wildcats' regular split end. Blackwell is used chiefly as corner back on defense.

Later Blackwell intercepted a pass and returned it 39 yards to the nine, setting up an insurance touchdown.

But his performance was no fluke. Known as a "real steady player," he has seen action in all K-State's games.

Blackwell's own comment was characteristic of his quiet, hard-working approach.

"I'm completely flabbergasted but very happy," he said. "I appreciate the honor very much. But, more than personally, I feel it is a tribute to one of the finest team efforts in which I have ever had a part."

Blackwell, a junior, stands 6-foot-2 and weighs 183. His closest competition for the honor came from John Hughes of Southern Methodist, an earlier Lineman of the Week.

Jimmy Brown Regains Lead In Scoring

NEW YORK (AP) — Jimmy Brown of Cleveland regained the scoring lead from Green Bay's Jerry Kramer and Roosevelt Taylor of the Chicago Bears took over first place in interceptions in weekend play in the National Football League.

Although Brown's Cleveland Browns dropped out of a first-place tie in the Eastern Conference by a 20-14 defeat at the hands of St. Louis, Jimmy scored his 13th touchdown of the year for a total of 78 points. Jerry Kramer's only point was a conversion after the Packers' lone touchdown in that 26-7 defeat at Chicago. Kramer now has 76 points, only two more than New York's Don Chandler.

Brown gained 154 yards in 22 attempts, pushing his total for the year to 1,447. Another day like that and he will beat his own league record of 1,527 set in 1958. He needs only 80 yards and has four games to play.

Taylor grabbed two of the five against Green Bay for a leading total of seven for 118 yards. Dick Lynch of New York still has the most yardage with 152 on six interceptions.

Auburn Quarterback Second In Rushing

By The Associated Press

Auburn's Jimmy Sidle threatens to make college football history. He may become the first quarterback to lead the nation in rushing.

Official NCAA statistics through last Saturday's games, show that Sidle trails Kansas' Gale Sayers, the nation's major college rushing leader, by 14 yards. Sidle, however, has two more games to play while the Jayhawk halfback has only one.

The brilliant T-quarterback of Auburn has gained 835 yards rushing in eight games, making him the only rusher to average more than 100 yards per game. Sayers has 849 in nine games.

Quarterback Don Trull of Baylor leads the passing and total offense departments by a wide margin. In passing, he has connected with 142 of 254 throws of 1860 yards. In total offense, he has amassed 1913 yards in 329 plays.

The 2-year-old colt Bupers is named after the U.S. Navy's Bureau of Personnel. He is owned by Marion Frankel.

Minor Loops Request Aid From Majors

NEW YORK (AP) — The realignment of the two top minor baseball leagues may not be completed until the minor league meetings in San Diego next month.

The International League, beset by financial problems as a result of its expansion to 10 teams last year, has requested aid from the majors before agreeing to continue its present setup.

League President Tommy Richardson discussed his circuit's problems with Commissioner Ford Frick Tuesday and received assurance that every consideration would be given to his request.

While neither Richardson nor Frick would disclose the exact nature of the request, it is believed the International would prefer returning to eight teams unless the majors helped defray some of the added travel costs.

When the American Association was disbanded last year, both the International and Pacific Coast Leagues expanded to 10 teams. The International added Indianapolis and Little Rock. The PCL took on Denver, Oklahoma City and Dallas - Fort Worth, dropping Vancouver.

The PCL, which had five teams that are directly owned by the major leagues, is set to resume with 10 teams in 1964. The International is not in such a fortunate position. All of its teams are independently owned with big league working agreements.

Consequently, the International cannot withstand losses as well as the Pacific Coast League.

Giant Handyman Enjoys Best Day Of Pro Career

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Joe Morrison is the handyman of the New York Giants. If any back is hurt, offense or defense, Allie Sherman turns to available Joey from Lima, Ohio.

"Morrison just proved once again he is the best all around back anybody could have," said Sherman after Morrison enjoyed his best day Sunday against San Francisco.

Playing fullback as a sub for the injured Alex Webster, Morrison carried the ball 17 times for 98 yards, including one 44-yard ramble. He also caught three passes for 54 yards and two touchdowns. His total offense for the day was 152 yards.

Nobody would think of comparing the 26-year-old Cincinnati alumnus with Jimmy Brown. Yet the NFL statistics reveal a startling fact. With the exception of Jimmy's average of 7.1 yards per carry, Morrison's 5.6-yard average is best among the 15 top ground gainers. Morrison is way down the list in 12th place with 389 yards rushing, not quite 1,100 yards behind Brown.

If you are wondering how Roger Staubach, a junior at Navy, is eligible for the pro draft, it is because he spent a year in junior college at New Mexico Military Institute. The pros probably will lay off Roger in the early rounds because he is committed to a career in the Navy but they'll grab him later, just in case . . . Over 60 of the current college stars already have been drafted as futures because their original college class graduates next spring. . . Peahead Walker, scout for the New York Giants, says tackle Scott Appleton of Texas is the best lineman he's seen and George Mira of Miami is the best pro type quarterback . . . Steve Owen is back with the Giants on the scouting staff.

Loss of Lenny Moore for the balance of the year puts a heavy burden on Johnny Unitas because Moore and the Colts' spotty running attack were practically synonymous. . .Bart Starr will start for the Packers against the 49ers Sunday if he is sharp enough to suit Vince Lombardi.

Majors Prepare For Trade Time

NEW YORK (AP) —Their appetites whetted by the big trade involving Rocky Colavito, major league baseball owners get their chance to swing into high swapping gear beginning at midnight tonight.

That's the opening hour of the annual interleague trading period, which will run until midnight Dec. 15.

Some big names have been talked about.

Cincinnati could possibly be tempted to part with Vada Pinson, Joey Jay or Gordy Coleman, if the right bait is offered in exchange.

Three National League sluggers, Orlando Cepeda of San Francisco, Eddie Mathews of Milwaukee and Frank Thomas of the New York Mets, might be had for the right price.

Among the American League players discussed in trade rumors are Leon Wagner of the Los Angeles Angels, Jim Gentile of Baltimore and Lu Clinton of Boston.

The American League teams seem particularly anxious to make personnel changes after the Los Angeles Dodgers proved in the World Series that the Yankees can be beaten.

That sent new hope through the league where it has been a long time since a real challenge to the Yankees was mounted.

Michigan State Star Selected Back Of Week

By The Associated Press

When you've got Michigan State backed up against their own goal line, watch out.

Notre Dame penned the Spartans on their 15-yard line in the fourth quarter Saturday, and a 7-6 Irish lead was looking good. Then Sherman Lewis, only 152 pounds, burst all the way for the touchdown that gave Michigan State a 12-7 victory.

It was the fifth time this year that Sherman had gone more than 80 yards, and the run earned the senior co-captain of the Spartans the Back of the Week honor in The Associated Press survey.

Lewis, who comes from Louisville, Ky., also scored the first Michigan State touchdown. He was the leading rusher for the Spartans with 138 yards and played on defense most of the game.

It was a good Saturday for running backs, elsewhere. Junior fullback Brian Piccolo of Wake Forest led his team to a 20-19 victory over South Carolina, breaking the nation's longest major college losing streak at 18. Piccolo gained 140 yards in 21 rushes and started the comeback from a 19-7 deficit with a 16-yard touchdown run. Then he kicked the game-winning extra point.

Paul Martha, Pitt's left halfback, scored on a long run for the second week in a row to start the victory over Army. He had 103 yards on six carries.

Fullback Steve Murphy gained 128 yards for Northwestern, more than the entire Ohio State team, and had two touchdowns.

Sophomore halfback Larry Shields scored both touchdowns for Oklahoma against Missouri, one on a blistering punt return, and made two important pass interceptions.

Two quarterbacks, Terry Isaacson of Air Force and Archie Roberts of Columbia, were outstanding. Isaacson scored twice, set up three other touchdowns and a field goal and punted for a 50-yard average against New Mexico. Roberts passed for three touchdowns and ran for a fourth against Penn.

Pro Gridder Sues

HOUSTON (AP)—Claude King filed a suit in district court Tuesday against the Boston Patriots and the Houston Oilers.

The former University of Houston halfback said he signed a contract with the Oilers on Aug. 7, 1962, which said he was to be paid $9,500 for the season.

Soon afterward he was transferred, without his consent, to the Patriots.

King claims $2,037 has been withheld from his pay, and the defendants "are attempting to breach the contract."

He asks the $2,037 in back pay that he says is due plus $400 transportation expenses and $900 in fees for his lawyer.

Ex-College Head Dies

CONSHOCKEN, Pa. (AP) — Dr. William E. Brandt, 72, former college president, sports writer, public relations executive and for 10 years director of the National Baseball League's Service Bureau, died Monday.

Wittenberg Has Proper Ingredients

By HAL PARIS

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Want a sure-fire recipe for a winning football team?

Blend a veteran, knowledgeable coach with a dozen talented players. Sprinkle in a liberal dosage of enthusiasm and determination. Then mix vigorously.

Those are the main ingredients that make up the Wittenberg success story.

The man most responsible for building the Springfield university into a small college power is 58-year-old Bill Edwards.

Edwards, who serves both as athletic director and football coach, has plied his trade for more than 30 years.

A 1931 graduate of Wittenberg, Edwards returned to his alma mater as head football coach in 1955. In nine seasons here, he has guided the Tigers to four titles and one co-championship with an overall 62-13-4 record.

Wittenberg hasn't lost a game in two years and has copped an unprecedented three straight Ohio Conference championships. Only an early season deadlock with Otterbein marred this season's 8-0-1 performance.

An associate of Edwards says the Wittenberg mentor has a knack for getting his team up week after week.

"The kids will do anything he asks them to," he says. "They have tremendous respect for him. They think the world of him."

Last year's Wittenberg squad is generally regarded as the best Tiger team in history. The 1962 edition went unbeaten in nine games and held the opposition to a mere 37 points.

But this year's team has to rank as the best ever offensively.

Wittenberg, sparked by the brilliant combo of quarterback Charlie Green and 6-foot-5 end Bob Cherry, ran up 365 points in its nine outings, or 40 points a game.

Green, a junior, led the conference in passing and total offense with some convincing statistics. He completed 114 of 182 passes for 2,181 yards and 19 touchdowns and added another 43 by rushing for a net total of 2,224 yards, a loop record.

Cherry, his favorite target, grabbed 45 pitches for 886 yards and 13 touchdowns, also a record.

Wittenberg piled up 4,095 yards during the season, a whopping 455 yards a game.

Celtics Push Mark To 12-1

By The Associated Press

O.K., Boston, we get the point.

If the Boston Celtics are really out to prove they can win in the National Basketball Association without the retired Bob Cousy they are doing a good job of it.

The Celts dealt the rejuvenated New York Knicks a sharp lesson in the second game of a doubleheader at Madison Square Garden Tuesday night, to make their season record 12-1. The score was 126-98.

The Knicks, who had won three in a row for the first time since anyone could remember, were talking about cooling off the Celtics, but Boston put the chill on them instead.

The second place Cincinnati Royals chopped Down the Detroit Pistons 127-102 in the first game.

In the other NBA game, the San Francisco Warriors jumped off to a 66-43 lead at the half, and coasted to a 129-96 victory over the St. Louis Hawks, leaders in the West.

Oscar Robertson had one of his real good nights with 32 points, as the Royals scored 40 points in the first quarter and led the rest of the way.

Detroit made a move in the third quarter and closed to within six points. Pistons Coach Charley Wolf—who coached the Royals last season—was excited enough to get chased by referee Tom Birch, but the Royals came back and drew away.

Al Spangler, once owned by Milwaukee, led Houston's hitters with a .281 batting average last season.

Pitt's Martha Was Fine At Quarterback Once

By ED SCHULER JR.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Paul Martha plays halfback for Pitt —and he plays it exceptionally well—but he'd just as soon play quarterback.

Pitt Athletic Director Frank Carver has called him the best Panther running back since the great Marshall Goldberg was making headlines in the late 1930s and Army's Paul Dietzel said before last Saturday's game that "Paul Martha is probably the best college football player in the country."

The senior halfback didn't do anything to change either opinion with his performance against the Cadets—six carries for 103 yards gained and a touchdown.

With such raves and performances to give them credence one might wonder why Martha would say, "I think I like quarterback as much as halfback."

The answer isn't a difficult one. Martha had an outstanding prep career as a quarterback at Shadyside Academy in Pittsburgh and was the Panthers' front line signal caller before being switched to halfback last season.

However, to say that Martha is unhappy about being switched to halfback would be wrong.

"I have no regrets, absolutely not," he said in the locker room after the victory over Army. "Besides we probably couldn't have a better quarterback than Fred (Mazurek). I'd probably be second team quarterback this year."

West Point Grange

WEST POINT — The West Point Grange will meet Friday evening at 8 after a coverdish dinner at 6:30. Coffee, rolls, butter and cream will be furnished. A surprise program is being arranged.

The Los Angeles Angels have Don, Mike and Bob Lee on their roster. All are pitchers, none related.

People In News

PARIS (AP) — Socialist Gaston Defferre, mayor of Marseille, may challenge Charles de Gaulle in France's 1965 presidential election.

"I have begun to think it over," said Defferre. "I have not merely the right to do so, but also the duty."

De Gaulle is virtually certain to seek re-election.

CHICAGO (AP)—Sir Winston Church's actress daughter, Sarah has canceled her engagement at a suburban Chicago threater and says she's going home to England.

Miss Churchill was to have started rehearsals Tuesday in the leading role of "Glad Tidings." But she said she was emotionally upset and couldn't perform.

A spokesman for the Drury Lane Theater said opening of the play, scheduled for Thanksgiving, will be postponed until Dec. 1. The theater will try to find a substitute for Miss Churchill.

LONDON (AP) — A Soviet rocket specialist, Col. Gen. Vladimir Tolubko, says the Soviet Union has the stronger nuclear force, no matter what U.S. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara says.

In a Moscow broadcast monitored in London, Tolubko said:

"In the competition imposed on us by aggressive forces for quality and quantity of nuclear missiles, we not only do not drag behind those who menace us with war—we are very much better than they."

Tolubko, first assistant commander of Soviet strategic rocket forces, was replying to a recent speech by McNamara, who claimed nuclear superiority for the United States.

Woman's Baby Born On Hospital Elevator

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Four persons got on the elevator at St. Mary's Hospital, but five got off.

The fifth was a 6-pound, 1½-ounce son born to Mrs. Shirley Cooper, 32, of near Maynardville, as she was being taken to the delivery room.

Two ambulance drivers and a nurse delivered the infant.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: That letter from "Married to a Ham" should not be taken lightly. You suggested that the wife should get interested in the hobby, too. I knew of a fellow who taught his wife to operate his ham radio and it almost broke up two marriages.

Mrs. Y started a cozy little talk - romance with a guy from Enid, Okla. They began to mail pictures back and forth. The next time anybody knew, Mrs. Y took off for Enid. A few weeks later, the guy from Enid came up to see Mrs. Y. These two psychosomatics (crackpots) spent four whole days together — "getting acquainted," they said.

Fortunately, no divorces took place. The people involved finally got squared away with the help of clergymen.

So you can see, Ann, women don't really belong in the ham radio field. It should be strictly for men. — AGAINST HALF-BAKED LADY HAMS.

Dear Half Baked: You forget that half of this goofy twosome was a man. Characters like Mrs. Y and Mr. Enid could have met on a street car, so don't blame the hobby.

Busy Line

Dear Ann: Recently I went into one of the finest department stores in the city. A clock which I had purchased there several months ago needed repair. I encountered a line of seven people ahead of me at the repair desk.

There was only one girl on duty and that flea brain couldn't have cared less about the customers. She was busily engaged in a telephone conversation with her boy friend. Her back was turned toward the customers but the conversation was audible to everyone within 10 feet.

The girl was on the phone exactly 12 minutes, by my watch. Three customers were angry enough to leave. I waited. It took me 22 minutes to drop off that clock.

My husband who was waiting outside was fit to be tied. What would you have done?—ONLY HUMAN.

Dear Only: After waiting 5 minutes for the girl to get off the horn, I would have hunted up the floor manager and invited him over to the repair counter for a listen.

Washed Out

Dear Ann: I'm a 13-year-old girl who made a terrible mistake. Two weeks ago I put peroxide in the water when I washed my hair. Not just a little peroxide — a whole lot. I meant for my hair to be a few shades lighter but it turned out much lighter than I expected.

My mother and dad went wild when they saw me. I got orders to get a short haircut at once. Now my hair is blonde on the ends but close to the scalp it's dark brown and I look like a field animal.

My parents are so mad they hardly speak to me. My mother won't let me go to the beauty shop and get my hair tinted back to my natural color. She says I have to sweat it out.

How can I get back on friendly terms with my folks? Please suggest something — OLD BALDY.

Dear Baldy: Be patient. In a few weeks you'll be looking human again. In the meantime, keep ribbons, bows and other ornaments off your head. Make no reference to your hair and your folks will thaw out eventually.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self - addressed envelope.

Area Catholics Join In Clothing Drive For Needy

District parishes will participate in the 15th annual Thanksgiving clothing collection sponsored by the Catholic Bishops of the United States in more than 16,500 churches across the nation.

The Youngstown Diocese will hold its drive Sunday through Nov. 30 and donations may be left at the nearest Catholic Church or rectory.

The purpose of the clothing collection is to obtain serviceable used clothing, shoes, bedding, blankets, etc., for the destitute and ill - clothed in the impoverished and underdeveloped areas of the world. Distribution is made by Catholic Relief Services, the overseas aid agency of American Catholics.

Now the largest private voluntary relief organization in the U.S., Catholic Relief Services maintains programs of relief and assistance for the hungry, the homeless and the destitute in 67 countries. All its relief supplies — food, clothing, medicine — are distributed to the needy as gifts from the American people, and without regard to race, religion or color, solely on the basis of human need.

CORBIN, Ky. (AP) — When Mrs. Magdalene Vanover entered a conversation with grocer Herbert Eaton, he was reminded by her accent of his days during World War II in her native Germany. He pulled out a photograph album and, as a result, Mrs. Vanover and her former American soldier husband now have a picture of her when she was a little girl at Darmstadt, Germany.

Personal Income Hit New Record During October

WASHINGTON (AP) — Personal income rose $3 billion in October to a record annual rate of $470.3 billion, the Commerce Department announced.

About one-third of the increase was attributed to a military pay raise.

The new income peak was $5 billion above the average for the previous three months and was $22.5 billion or 5 per cent higher than in October 1962.

Leaving military pay out of the consideration, the increase was approximately the same as the monthly average for the first six months of 1963.

Personal income includes wages and salaries, net income of small businesses and farmers, dividends and interest and other types of individual income.

Out Of Candy

GLENDALE, Ariz. (AP) — A Glendale housewife received a stern warning from police for putting dog food in Halloween trick - or - treat bags carried by neighborhood children. The woman said she ran out of candy, so switched to dry dog food pellets.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: The other night when I was shampooing my 10-year-old daughter's below-the-waist length hair . . . out of sheer desperation I came up with a wonderful idea.

I removed the shower head and attached the hose of my sprayer to the pipe.

When the hose it attached to the shower knob, the length of the hose allows for the spray to be manipulated any place you want it.

Finding this out was a terrific help, but this particular night I simply had to manage some way so that I didn't have to bend over at all.

So I took the youngest child's high chair, put it in the bathtub, set my 10-year-old daughter in it and scrubbed away! There was no pain for mama's back and the child remarked: "This is just like going to the beauty parlor."

After the shampoo I rubbed the high chair down with clean terry towel and killed two birds with one stone.

ALYNE.

Attaching the hose is also an excellent idea for giving a small child a shower. And I wonder why they put that shower head so high? I'm only 5 feet, 2 inches tall.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Instead of trying to shove a small baby's leg or arm through a garment (I wonder if this does not scare him), I have found it far easier to put my hand through the sleeve of the nightgown, sweater, leggings, etc., hold his hand (or foot) and pull it through.

It makes dressing baby twice as fast. And besides, he loves the feel of your hand grasping his and pulling it through the sleeve. This is especially good when you are trying to pull one garment over another.

Sure save Mother lots of time.

GLORIA.

Original Sack

DEAR HELOISE: I remove the printing from cotton bags by first rubbing them with strong bar soap. I then put the bags in cold water and let them soak overnight.

I put the pot on the stove and bring the water to a boil. I let it boil for about 10 minutes. Then I remove the bags and rub them on a rubbing board until all traces of the printing are removed.

I have also found that transferring the soap-rubbed bags from the water in which they have been soaked overnight to a clean pan of water before boiling, is far more successful.

I then hang my bags out in the sun to dry.

NANCY PENDERGRAS.

DEAR HELOISE: Don't look any further for that "something" to cook fresh asparagus in. Just use a two pound coffee can. When you get through just give the can a pitch . . . no pot to wash!

STELLA PERINO

DEAR HELOISE: Many hard-set stains may be removed by placing a piece of aluminum foil directly under the stain and laying it on the grass in the bright sunlight!

WANDA WEBER.

DEAR HELOISE: For those who battle the jellied cranberry sauce that comes in cans and try to get it out of the can whole, so that it can be sliced and look attractive . . . open the can on one end as usual, remove the lid, turn the can upside down on a plate and then take your can opener and put a hole in the other end.

This lets the air into the can and . . . "kerplop" out comes that sauce quite undisturbed. Also it can be sliced beautifully.

This method is much easier than opening both ends of the can.

Stress On Grades Cause Of Cheating

It's hard to imagine any parent wishing his child to cheat in tests or in homework. Yet parents and teachers know a good deal of such cheating occurs. There is the normal urge by a student to get the highest possible grade he can with the least expenditure of effort. If the student in a test can have at hand information called for which he had guessed beforehand might be asked, he finds it an easy way to win the reward of a higher grade. His interest is in the reward. The less effort he must exert to attain this reward the more successful he may feel he has been.

Dr. Garry Meyers

A COMMON FORM of cheating is to copy the answers in a test from another pupil or student. Over many years a few schools have trusted to the honor system, in which each student makes a written statement he has neither received nor given help in a test. He also is supposed to squeal on other students who violated this written pledge.

While apparently the plan works pretty well in a few instances, one gathers that it more often fails. In general, the trend is to set the stage during tests to make it hard as possible to cheat without being apprehended.

It seems that the amount of cheating varies widely from school to school and classroom to classroom. Also the degree of cheating largely depends on the classroom atmosphere and teacher - pupil relationships.

One reason for so much cheating is that students feel the home and school attach great importance to passing and superior grades. Another reason is that so much written homework is given grades at school. The lazy learner soon discovers who excels in his classroom and is tempted to copy his homework from this student.

A CHILD OR youth may often earn a good grade on what his parents have done for him at home. These types of cheating could be eliminated or reduced if written work done at home were not graded unless the child gave evidence in the classroom that he had mastered the facts and skills involved in the written homework.

Help by parents at home, of course, may be highly desirable. But a note by the parent on each homework item explaining the part of it he or she did would be a good idea.

As parents, we wish our child earned a grade only on his own achievement. This ideal we might get over to him in companionable conversation. It would be fine if he could feel only contempt for being rewarded with a grade for what he didn't do, for deceit.

Desirable as it is to get over to your child and mine the sense of honesty, it does not always work. In most cases, perhaps, a more effective appeal is in terms of self - reliance and self - regard.

IN EVER SO many ways, in companionable relations with our child we may be able to win his desire to rely on himself, to enjoy the feeling that the grades he earns are really his.

Children in the elementary grades or high school are widely sensitive to the principle of sportsmanship and fair play. I have long believed this is an area, if we won the child's genuine esteem, in which we parents and teachers might do a great deal to cause him to choose not to cheat.

Report On Jetport Plan Due In January

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — A report on the feasibility of a Southwest Ohio jetport is due in January, one of the airport's major backers says.

William Patterson, former mayor of Dayton and secretary-treasurer of the Southwestern Ohio Regional Airport Authority, said the study will include site possibilities. He added that the aviation survey firm making the study will go ahead with plans for the jetport that should be completed in 1969 or 1970.

Supporters of the regional jetport feel that Southwest Ohio's needs a few years from now will not be served adequately by the Dayton and greater Cincinnati airports. Expert opinions on the matter differ widely.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Challenge Yourself To Stay Slim

Gumption is a rather old fashioned word. It means the possessor has spunk and can rise to a challenge. The spirited gal in today's story has that uncommon quality.

Ida Jean Kain

The situation this former reducer found herself in was a severe test. Two years ago she had slimmed down from a high of 180 pounds to 130, and changed three dress sizes. She felt triumphant and wrote to report her success. At that time our correspondent admitted she had reduced before and regained. Here is her letter, written October 7th.

—:—

"WELL, I PROMISED to let you know if I kept the pounds off. My story has taken an unexpected turn. After losing the excess weight and getting in shape I purchased a new fall wardrobe to fit my new figure—then in December I found I was pregnant!

"I am 35, and our youngest child is 10, so this was quite a jolt to everyone — mostly me. Here I was at my ideal weight. By the way, I had found for my 5'5¾ inches and my frame that my best holding weight is 138 pounds. At that weight I wear sizes 13 and 14.

"We have three other children and with each one, with the exception of the first, I put on far too much weight. In fact, it was the start of my weight problem. To get to the point of my letter — during this pregnancy I gained only 22 pounds. I had made up my mind that I was not coming out of it fat! I had worked far too hard to get the pounds off to let that happen.

"During the whole nine months it was a struggle not to gain. My baby will be two weeks old tomorrow and I'm already down to 134 pounds. Admittedly, I have some exercising to do to firm up. Most of my clothes fit now, and by my six week check up, I'm determined that the rest of my wardrobe will fit.

"TELL YOUR readers that pregnancy is no excuse for getting fat. As depressed as I was at first, I could very easily have gained all of that weight back. I had to strengthen my inner braces not to. It's such a sense of accomplishment — to have a healthy, normal weight baby — and to know that I still look well in my clothes," she concluded happily.

To win when the odds are against you — that's the real test! We salute you...and your unsinkable spirit.

Send long stamped, self - addressed envelope for leaflet After The Baby Arrives. Address request to Ida Jean Kain, care of The Review. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Criminal Neglect Charges Land 3 Parents In Jail

CLEVELAND (AP) — Three parents have been jailed on charges of criminal neglect of their children, who allegedly were involved in a West Side theft ring.

A 13-year-old boy and a 14-year-old boy also involved in the ring and their parents were put on one year's probation.

Juvenile Court Judge Angelo J. Gagliardo meted out the punishment Tuesday after giving the parents a tongue-lashing.

George Monhart, 52, and his wife, Irman, parents of 12-year-old twins allegedly involved in the ring, were released on total bond of $700 after a few hours.

Thomas Conway, 37, whose 11-year-old son allegedly took part, remained in jail in lieu of $500 bail.

The Monharts and Conway face a preliminary hearing in Juvenile Court on the charges.

Parma police planned to file charges today against 13 youths, 13-16 years old, who authorities say broke into Pleasant Valley Junior High School three times in the past six weeks, destroying property and stealing $50.

Domer Tells Of Forgery In Murder Trial

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Testifying in his own defense against first - degree murder charges, Robert K. Domer, 43, described Tuesday how he changed from a successful businessman to a harried financial manipulator who forged a $5,000 check on his mother's savings account.

Domer took the stand Tuesday afternoon and was due back again today in Stark County Common Pleas Court.

He is accused of killing Howard F. Riddle, 54, an Akron fruit peddler whose charred body was found in Domer's car near the Stark-Wayne County line April 23. The state charges that Domer killed Riddle to fake his own death so his beneficiaries could collect $288,000 in insurance.

In narrating his business career, Domer started with his resignation as a vice president of Harter Bank & Trust Co. in February 1956. He said he and other investors operated Mortgage Securities, Inc., which flourished to a firm handling 7,000 accounts totaling $93 million when he resigned in May 1961, as president and general manager.

He promptly organized Continental Mortgage Corp. and entered into commitment to buy Equitable Mortgage Co. of Dayton and American Midwest Mortgage Corp. of Detroit, he said.

The $105,000 loan he arranged with a New York lender to finance this deal started him on a downhill slide, Domer said.

First, Domer said, he got only $62,000 from the New York lender—$43,000 less than he expected and needed. Then he lost a contract with a Philadelphia firm which had been buying morgages from his company.

Builders began calling him "at all hours of the day and night" to press for funds, Domer said.

While he was traveling around the country trying to arrange for the funds he had to have, the Philadelphia firm insisted he take back three mortgages he had sold them for $19,000 Domer said.

This was in June 1962, he testified, and he began illegal manipulations to acquire the cash he was unable to borrow. He said he took $12,000 from a custodial account he was servicing for the Federal National Mortgage Association. He tried to obtain $10,000 by offering forged mortgage cancellations as securities, and he forged his parents' signatures to draw $5,000 from his mother's account, Domer said.

There was a shortage of about $38,000 in his accounts when auditors from the Federal National Mortgage Association checked his books last March, Domer said. He said he stalled for time by telling them he "was sure there was some explanation."

Domer's attorney asked him whether he alone was responsible for this shortage, and the defendant answered:

"Yes, I am."

Holden Heads Calcutta PTA

William Holden, vice president of the Calcutta Parent-Teacher Association, was elevated to president at a meeting Monday night at the school.

He succeeds Clayton Aughinbaugh, who resigned because of his election to the Board of Education. A new vice president will be chosen at the meeting Jan. 20.

Dr. Arthur Cloran spoke on dental health in children. Two films were screened, and a question-and-answer period followed.

It was announced the membership now is 295, with Mrs. Grace Paul's second grade having 100 per cent parental enrollment.

The group is selling candy plates and other pottery products as a fund-raising project. An allocation of $100 was made to the emergency welfare fund.

Uncovering Manholes Could Lead To Arrest

Safety - Service Director Robert Owen and Police Chief Americo J. Radeschi today issued a joint warning to misguided pranksters that removal of manhole covers may lead to their arrest.

The director pointed out that covers were removed from manholes twice in the last week in the same East End neighborhood. The action was responsible for damage to an auto Monday nght when its wheel dropped into the opening, he pointed out.

An open manhole on a dark street also can be a hazard to pedestrians, Owen added. Persons who see an unauthorized person removing a manhole cover should notify police immediately, the director added.

Council Told To Keep Police Canine Corps

CINCINNATI (AP) — City Manager William Wichman urged Tuesday that City Council retain the police canine corps in spite of much criticism, especially from the local chapter of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People.

Several persons were bitten by a police dog handled by a policeman in breaking up a street crowd in the West End in the spring of 1962. Wichman said police needed the dogs to curb increasing lawlessness.

City Inspector Linked To Fekett Extortion Case

CLEVELAND (AP) — A Youngstown city inspector, Bill Timnik, was employed for two weeks at $92 to pick up tools for the contractor on a job he was inspecting, a witness testified in Federal Court Tuesday.

Patsy Pillorusso, a Girard contractor, admitted during cross-examination that he put Timnik on the payroll for after-hours work on the Kirkmere Creek sewer culvert project in Youngstown.

Earlier Pillorusso had testified that Samuel S. Fekett, former city law director in Youngstown, had demanded a $5,000 payoff from him in exchange for granting a city contract on the Kirkmere Creek project for which Pillorusso had entered a low bid of $79,844 in May 1960.

Fekett is on trial in U. S. District Court on charges of attempted extortion and extortion of money from contractors seeking work with the city of Youngstown.

Fekett's attorney, Fred H. Mandel, cross - examined Pillorusso and produced a Youngstown court record of the contractor's testimony that he had employed Timnik. This record came from a suit against the Pillorusso Construction Co. by Syro Steel Co. of Girard in which the latter obtained a judgment of $15,000. Pillorusso said the judgment was settled later for a smaller amount.

Youngstown stopped work on the Kirkmere Creek project about three weeks after it started, and Pillorusso testified this was because pipe supplied by Syro Steel did not meet specifications.

William S. Lynch, Justice Department attorney from Washington, said in his opening statement Monday he would show Fekett tried to collect $3,990 from Syro Steel for its part of the Kirkmere Creek project and actually did collect $750.

Television Cable Firm Asks Local Franchise

TV Cable Service, Inc., of Weirton asked Council Tuesday night for authority to operate an East Liverpool system for relaying television signals into homes via direct wires.

The request of Atty. Dwight H. Trushel of Weirton, counsel for the company, was given to Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper, who relayed it to Council.

The company asked Council to grant it a 20-year franchise for maintaining and operating its system here. A similar service now operates in Chester, relaying signals from a big hilltop antenna. Council referred the request to its ordinance committee.

New Talks Set In Newspaper Strike At Toledo

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Representatives of the striking Toledo Newspaper Guild and the Toledo Blade Co. are scheduled to meet again Thursday in their second session since picketing halted newspaper publication here after Saturday's edition.

A six-hour meeting Tuesday with federal mediator Harry Gray brought what Gray described as some progress toward a new contract covering 400 employes of the afternoon and Sunday Blade and the morning Times.

This is the first time in 128 years that the Blade, which has a circulation of about 182,000, has failed to publish.

The Guild's two-year contract expired Oct. 21. Key issues in the dispute are wages, exclusions from contract jurisdiction, and a management proposal for the right to cut pay of employes above contract salary minimums.

William Blatz, collective bargaining director of the American Newspaper Guild, came here from the international's Washington headquarters to deliver a $50,000 check to strikers from ANG's defense fund. Benefit payments for strikers are expected to begin during the coming weekend.

Rookie Max Alvis of the Cleveland Indians led the team in home runs in 1963 with 22. He also led them in runs batted in with 67.

Out Of The Air

By ALAN GILL

Sex Is Funny

Gwen Verdon doesn't believe the slow, steamy dance numbers she performs are sexy. She thinks they're funny. And if it weren't for all those people looking at her, she'd bust right out laughing.

Alan Gill

"I enjoy the 'Sadie Thompson' routines where I wiggle and waggle and the boys in the chorus roll over dead," says the little redhead in her smolderingly comic voice. "But I wouldn't call them sexy. In fact, when I watch myself on TV, I can't help snickering."

-:-

GWEN'S NEXT chance to enjoy a good snicker comes tonight on "The Danny Kaye Show." At one point she adds a new slightly corrupt dimension to such innocent revels as "Three Blind Mice" and "Row, Row, Row Your Boat."

As the dances will prove, "the line between sex and humor is mighty skinny. The great sex symbols of the movies, like Sophia Loren and Gina Lollobrigida, have found it out and become delightful comediennes," according to Gwen.

But to her, the most gifted of 'em all was the late Marilyn Monroe.

"I WAS HER dance coach at 20th Century-Fox," she recalls. "There wasn't much I could teach her about dancing, though. Or comedy. Or sex.

"Even when she was stuck in those turgid, heavy-breathing dramas, she wasn't really trying for the last word in sex; she was kidding it. It just took awhile for those fellows at Fox to get the idea."

Gwen Verdon was able to put her own theories into practice only after she'd deserted Hollywood for Broadway. As Lola, the Devil's most persuasive handmaiden in "Damn Yankees," she became more tantalizing with each scene; the sexier she got, the more the audience howled.

The show's choreographer, Bob Fosse, shared her cheerful viewpoint on the subject, and the two of them chuckled all the way to the altar.

"Bob's not the only choreographer with a sense of humor," Gwen says. "Jerome Robbins has it, and so does Ballanchine.

"When Ballanchine was creating dances for his former wife, Tamara Geva, he'd add wonderful bits of satire and nonsense, though horse play wasn't exactly Mme. Geva's strong suit.

"After one opening night, she ran backstage and told her husband, 'Those rude people kept laughing at me!' And even after he'd explained that the thing was meant to be funny, she refused to believe him."

-:-

UNLIKE Mme. Geva, most dancers have a keen sense of humor, in Gwen's opinion.

"Plenty of good comediennes started as dancers," she points out. "Look at Imogene Coca and Lucille Ball.

"And it works the other way around, too. Chaplin, I've been told, could have outtangoed Valentino. Dick Van Dyke's got a natural talent for dance. So does Danny Kaye."

Miss Verdon knows whereof she speaks, since she had Kaye as one of her star pupils at Fox; and they shared two song-and-dance routines in the movie, "On the Riviera."

Beaming as proudly as a teacher brought back to confront one of her former students on "This Is Your Life," Gwen says:

"Danny soaked up dance techniques like a sponge. From the start he realized there's more to comic dancing than kicking your legs in the air and falling on your rear end.

"First you have to dance well; then, when the gestures are exaggerated ever so slightly, they're suddenly funny."

-:-

AND THAT'S IT with sex. Exaggerate a sinuous movement and it becomes a guffaw.

"Just being sexy on stage is dull, terribly dull," the lady proclaims. "If you want that sort of thing, go to a burlesque house. But a performer's sense of the ridiculous adds that extra little dash of spice.

"Isn't the same thing true in real life?" she concludes, opening her wide, wide eyes just a trifle wider. "When a man runs after a girl dead seriously, he can be an awful bore. But when he makes her laugh? Man, she's defenseless!"

High Court Admits Former Newell Man

A Newell native now a resident of Cadiz has been admitted to practice before the U. S. Supreme Court.

He is Edward Mosser, son of Mrs. Newton J. Mosser of Newell, prosecutor of Harrison County.

Rep. Robert Taft Jr. moved for the admission of Atty. Mosser in open court session. He may now appear before the U. S. Supreme Court in his practice.

Atty. Mosser was graduated from Wells High School in 1938 and from Duke University Law School.

4 Secretary Birds Folded For Shipping

MILWAUKEE (AP) — How do you ship four-foot high secretary birds from Kenya in Africa to Milwaukee?

You fold them up like a jackknife, wrap them up — mummy fashion — with muslin, put them in a small box and place them on a jet transport.

George Speidel, director of the Milwaukee Zoo, said the zoo's four new secretary birds, which have extremely delicate legs, arrived in "beautiful condition." He credited their unique packaging.

Beaver's United Fund Hits $823,781 For 7% Increase

The fifth annual campaign of the United Funds of Beaver County concluded Monday with a final report of $823,781, or 102.5 per cent of the 1963 goal of $803,902. This represents a 7 per cent increase over last year's successful campaign result of $774,038 and 59 per cent more than was raised in the first campaign in 1959.

More than 200 key campaign voluntary solicitors were the guests of the firm of Michael Baker, Jr., Inc. at the annual campaign testimonial dinner held in the Penn Beaver Hotel at Rochester.

Seven out of eight local areas affiliated with the countywide fund exceeded their 1963 quotas. The Midland Area, with a report of $59,240 or 107 per cent of goal, won the 1963 "Pacesetter" pennant.

Michael Baker Jr., the 1963 campaign chairman, declared "the fifth annual United Fund campaign in Beaver County reflected a truly united effort by all of our communities and citizens.

"Our 1963 campaign result of $823,781 will help to provide the necessary financial resources for our 43 affiliated health, welfare and character - building agencies who must serve more than 50,000 people during the coming year."

Special recognition was paid more than 40 firms and their employees who constantly support the United Fund campaign on a "Fair Share" basis during the past five years.

Edward A. Sahli, president of the United Funds of Beaver County, paid tribute to the united effort of organized labor, industrial management as well as the various Beaver County news media.

Special awards were presented to the campaign chairman, Michael Baker, Jr.; his Co - Chairmen Joseph N. Tosh and Sahli, and each of the local area campaign chairmen, including Charles A. Jacoby of Midland.

Awards for service on the countywide level also were presented.

Miss Patty Bitsko, an Ambridge High School senior, reigned over the meeting as the first United Funds of Beaver County "Miss Torch." She was originally selected as the first "Miss Torch" for the Ambridge Area campaign. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Baker, Jr. presented Miss Bitsko with a savings bond. During the meeting Miss Bitsko presented all campaign awards from her throne.

Ohio Delegation Still Bidding For Research Center

WASHINGTON (AP)— Ohio's congressional delegation is continuing its drive to have a proposed $50 million electronics research center built in the Buckeye State.

Rep. William E. Minshall, R-Ohio, put in the latest plug Tuesday before officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Minshall said the Crile hospital site in Parma Heights, Ohio, is well adapted to the needs of such a center, that it is already government - owned, and by next year will encompass 324 acres of fully developed real estate.

He also noted that Cleveland serves the Parma Heights area with transportation, power, water and sewerage facilities, and that a steam power plant already is on the location.

NASA originally planned to build the electronics center in Massachusetts. But various Ohio congressmen insisted that officials listen to presentations from other areas before making a decision.

Knowles Plant Listed In Realtors' Magazine

A big advertisement offering the former Edwin M. Knowles China Co. for sale or lease appears in the November issue of a national magazine published by the Society of Industrial Realtors.

Called an industrial property guide, the current edition features sites in West Virginia and Virginia, including many in the Wheeling and Upper Ohio Valley area.

The former Knowles property was acquired a few months ago by Mike Turk, president of Mike Turk, Inc. The advertisement points out the site covers 10 acres and the plant has 6½ acres under roof.

Cleveland Presbytery Picks New Moderator

CLEVELAND (AP)—The new moderator of the 70 - church Cleveland Presbytery is the Rev. Robert B. Clapp, 39, a Cleveland native who grew up in Warren and since 1950 has been pastor of the Boulevard Presbyterian Church in suburban Euclid.

He was elected Tuesday at a meeting in Akron to succeed the Rev. James E. Walker, pastor of the Rocky River Presbyterial Church.

The Rev. Merton B. McKendry, associate pastor of Lakewood presbyterian church, was elected vice moderator.

Trial Is Halted, Plaintiff Jailed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A judge halted a damage suit trial here Tuesday and ordered the plaintiff directly to jail to serve a 10-day sentence.

Judge Robert E. Leach acted after Mrs. Gladys Hoover, formerly of Columbus but now of Cleveland, admitted she perjured herself in earlier testimony.

The testimony involved a traffic accident here on Oct. 12, 1960, which resulted in Mrs. Hoover's $23,550 suit against the Donaldson Baking Co.

Judge Leach dismissed the suit after the woman admitted she was involved in a second traffic accident later in the day in question. She had denied this in earlier testimony.

Leach said in ordering the sentence immediately that he hoped his action would serve as a lesson to others.

Coroner's Ruling Due In Deaths Of Husband, Wife

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A ruling is expected by this weekend on whether an estranged housewife was killed Monday by a gun or that of a policeman.

Coroner A. H. Kyriakedes will rule in the deaths of Mrs. Rosalind Van Riper, 42, and her estranged husband, William, 48.

Police said Van Riper fired once at his wife with a .38-caliber derringer and patrolman George Wagner fired his .38-caliber service pistol twice at Van Riper.

Autopsies showed Mrs. Van Riper had bullet wounds in the right side of her head and chest and Van Riper had wounds through his chest and left wrist.

Detective Capt. Carroll Cutright theorized one of the two bullets fired by Wagner passed through Van Riper's heart, then lodged in Mrs. Van Riper's head.

Junior Editors Quiz on POTTERY

QUESTION: How are ceramics made?

ANSWER: Ceramics are useful or beautiful things—often both — made of clay and baked so they become hard. It is an ancient craft, for people have been making pottery for at least 10,000 years. A great step ahead was the discovery of a revolving stand called the "potter's wheel." Our picture shows one in action. First, a mass of clay is thrown on the wheel. Then, as the wheel spins, the potter uses various implements and his hands to shape the pot inside and outside. Our potter has built up a symmetrically shaped jar and now he is using his fingers to pull a lip out at the top as the jar spins. The result will be as shown at lower left.

A method used in making pottery on a commercial scale is to make the clay into a liquid called "slip." This is poured into moulds. The slip hardens first near the mould; when enough has hardened, the inside slip is poured out, the mould opened and the object removed. After being shaped, ceramic ware is heated in high temperature kilns, which gives the clay stone-like hardness. A final, shiny "glaze" is often applied.

FOR YOU TO DO: Get a bit of modelling clay and make the pot in upper right. Cut out round base first. Then roll several clay snakes and wind these upward on the base, coiling them more widely for the body and narrower for the top.

Wilma J. Williams of Clarksville, Tenn., wins today's grand prize of a 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review and you too may win a set.
